Marin Fireworks Displays Brighten Skies Two Nights

Skies of Marin County will be lit with bright colors tonight and tomorrow night in gala July 4 celebrations.

Tonight at 9:15 approximately 500 rounds of various aerial displays will be shot from Bolinas Beach towards Stinson Beach, said William A. Pomeroy, in charge of the firing.

Pomeroy said the show will include cassettes, various colored aerial bursts and aerial bombs up to 18 inches long.

The ninth annual Larkspur-Corte Madera Recreation Commission sponsored aerial show will be held tomorrow at 9:15 p.m. In charge of the show is Bill Yager of Corte Madera, a San Francisco dental supply salesman.

The colorful fireworks will be shot from the Neil Cummins School in Corte Madera and can be seen from Highway 101, the Corte Madera Shopping Center and from homes in the area, Yager said.

The show will last about 40 minutes with 225 various aerial effects presented. Harold L. Kelly, a member of the Corte Madera Volunteer Fire Department, assisted by other volunteers, will be in charge of the firing.

Funds for the show have been donated by Corte Madera, Larkspur and business organizations from both cities.

There will be no fireworks display this year in Sausalito, Fire Chief Mathew J. Perry said today.

Perry said that, with the sandspit being built up, there is no place to hold the display. We will abide by the city ordinance," he said, "of no sale and no shooting of fireworks." The event has been sponsored for the past six years by the Sausalito Lions Club and held on the sandspit.

Members of the Marinwood Volunteer Fire Department are sponsoring a pancake and bacon breakfast tomorrow from 8:30 a.m. to noon at Lee Brothers Market on Marinwood Avenue near Highway 101.

The breakfast will be followed at 3 p.m. by a bicycle parade for the youngsters. The parade, featuring decorated bicycles, will begin from the Los Gallitos Bridge and run down Miller Creek Road, winding up at Lee Brothers Market.

Scouts of Explorer Post 34, under advisor John T. Little, will set out 115 flags in the Mill Valley business districts for the July 4 holiday. The flags are displayed under sponsorship of the chamber of commerce.

Mill Valley Mayor Robert D. Huber will accept an American flag for the city at 11 a.m. tomorrow at Project 17 from Mill Valley American Legion Post No. 284 as presented by Commander Maurice P. Angland.

At that time a bugler will sound Retreat and the old 48-star flag will be lowered by Explorer Scout Post No. 34 and the new 50-star flag raised in its place.

The 69-foot flag pole, formerly in front of the American Legion Hall, was given to the city by the Legion and materials for the foundation provided by the Mill Valley Optimist Club.

Brush Blaze Blamed On Fireworks

Two San Rafael boys aged 10 and 11 had a premature Fourth of July firecracker celebration last night with sobering results.

They set off their crackers in high dry brush near the Harbor-Canal Street intersection and the brush blazed up suddenly to within six feet of a nearby apartment building from which a fire call was promptly sent.

This summoned fire apparatus at 5:59 p.m. from San Rafael's No. 2 station on Third Street, which promptly quenched the flames. But meanwhile one boy had jumped on a bicycle, pedaled to Bermuda Palms on Francisco Boulevard, and pulled a fire box which caused response from the No. 1 station at Fifth Avenue and B Street.

Officials and parents promptly learned the cause and administered stern lectures to the two young culprits, also confiscating their remaining firecrackers.

California Leading U.S. In Traffic Toll

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI)—California led the nation today with at least 32 traffic deaths on state highways since the July 4th weekend began at 6 p.m. Friday.

The total includes 18 deaths in Southern California and 14 in Northern California.

In addition, there were 11 drownings in the state and four miscellaneous deaths.

Art, Garden Fair Attendance Tops Records; Tomorrow Is Final Day

The Marin Art and Garden Fair which opened in Ross Friday evening topped all previous attendance records over the weekend.

A total of 14,533 persons had paid to see the show as of Sunday night, according to Marcelle B. McCoy, fair manager.

Mounting attendance ran as follows: Friday night, 2,141; Saturday, 5,131; Sunday, 7,261.

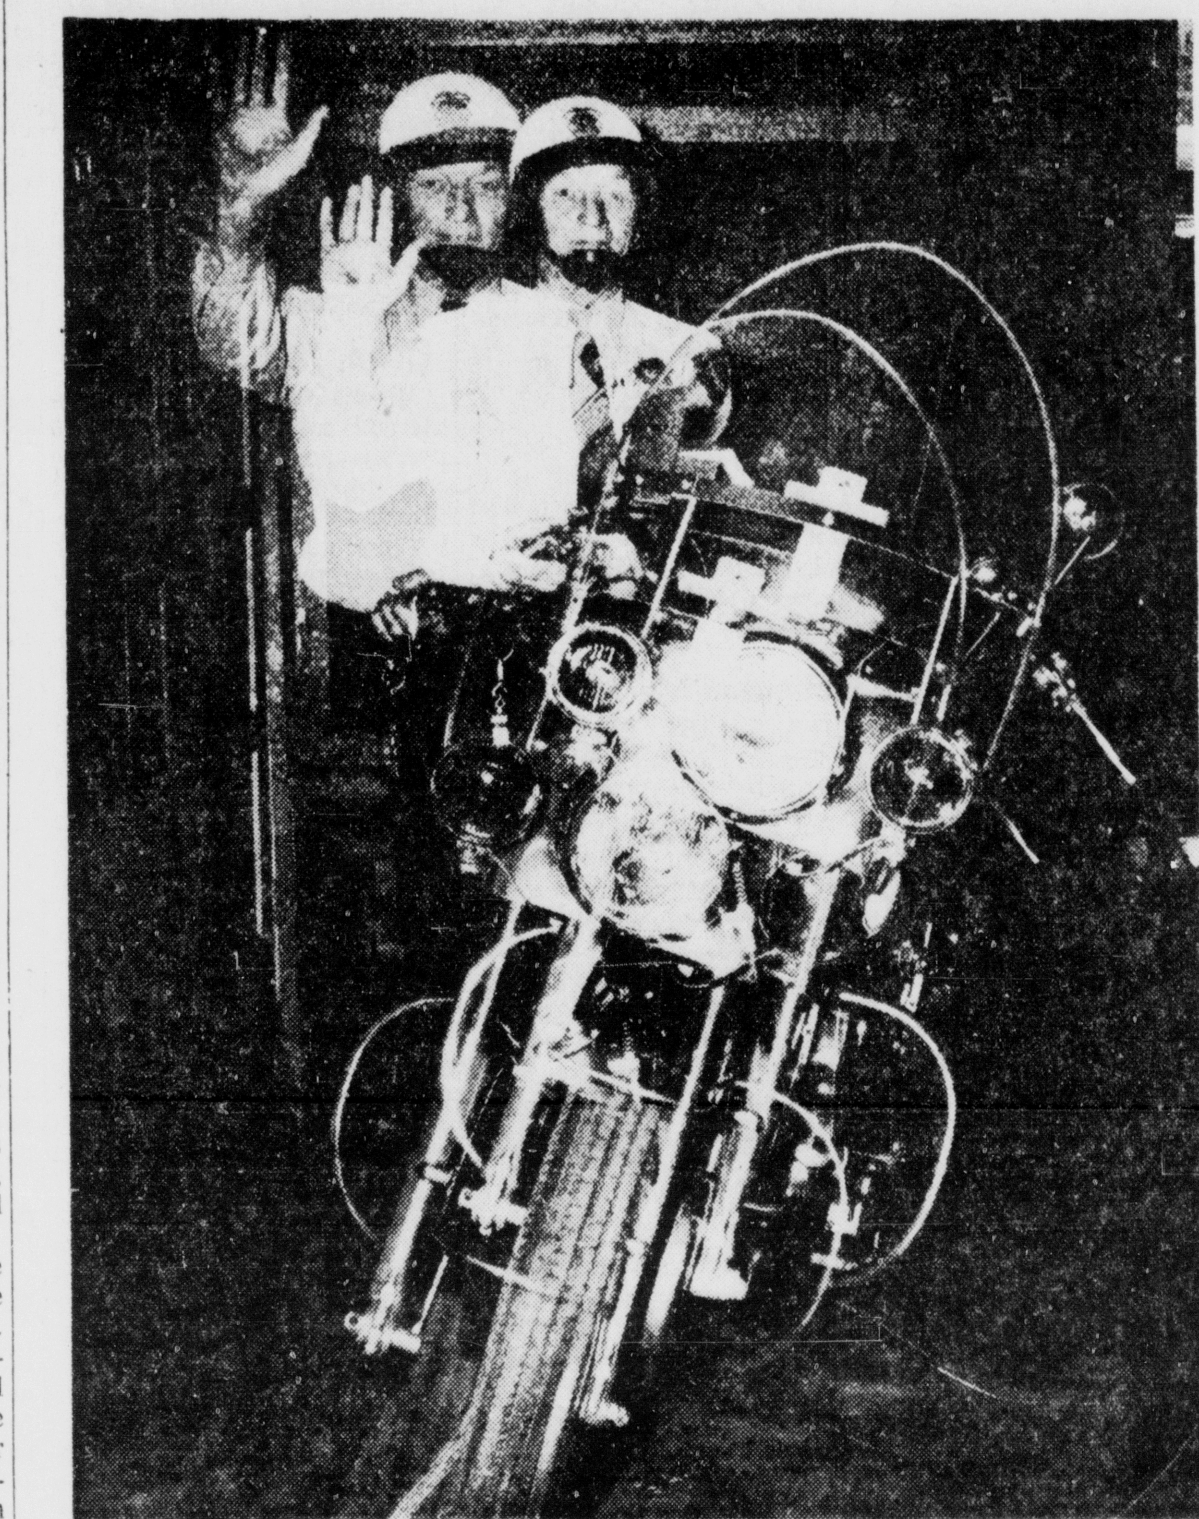

The event will be open tonight until 10 p.m. and tomorrow, the Fourth of July from 10 a.m. until 10 p.m. when the 1961 edition will close.

Among eye-stoppers are the four best-in-show winners:

West End Nursery of San Rafael, Corte Madera landscape contractor George Murata, Nix Nursery of Berkeley, and Tri-County's Bonsai Club. For Murata, this is the fourth consecutive top prize at the fair.

Crowds filled the amphitheater and lined the hill above the seats last night to see the Pacific Ballet Co. perform.

Entertainment this evening will include a garden lighting demonstration at 6 p.m.; organ concert, 6-7 p.m.; square dancing on the amphitheater stage at 7 p.m.; a variety show including Lou Jacklich, accordionist, and Billy Kaye, vibraphonist, at 8 p.m.

WHEN YOU SEE THIS, IT'S TOO LATE

If police officers start ganging up on you like this, it means you've had it and should have been off the highways long before. Law enforcement officials urged citizens to observe a safe and sane Fourth. Highway patrolmen, sheriff's deputies and policemen will be out in force to halt drunken drivers and other violators. (Independent-Journal photo)

HOLIDAY FIRE PATROLS SET

Special fire patrols are being run by the Marin County Fire Department at various points in the county including the west coastal area, the San Geronimo Valley and the Tamalpais watershed throughout the "July 4 long weekend" as a precaution against accidental fires set by holiday revelers.

One such blaze was caught at 6:03 p.m. yesterday near Adrien Way, Santa Venetia, when a grass fire was started by boys with cigarettes. No damage was caused.

Crash Victim Waits 11 Hours Before Rescue

A young San Francisco commercial artist underwent a 10-hour ordeal while lying with broken leg and arm 600 feet down an embankment near Stinson beach during Saturday night after his car went off the road.

John Wanek, 25, later told the California Highway Patrol he must have fallen asleep about 10 p.m. Saturday while northbound two miles east of Stinson Beach.

His car went straight where the highway curved, knocked out 10 feet of fence and plunged downhill through brush and tall grass before coming to rest 600 feet below the highway on the west side.

About 8 a.m. yesterday Arthur Hertz of Mill Valley, bound for a day of abalone hunting along the shore, heard a call for help and responded.

After some search through the brush he came on the overturned car with Wanek lying alongside.

Hertz scrambled back to the road and almost immediately was able to halt Dr. Monte Steadman of 100 Edison Avenue, Corte Madera, riding past on his motorcycle with his young daughter. The physician promptly went down and administered first aid until arrival of a Marin Ambulance Service vehicle from Larkspur. Ambulance attendants John Raggio and Zack Haddix had much difficulty getting to and from the wreck with their stretcher and were helped by Dr. Steadman. Highway Patrolman Joseph Kendrick termed Wanek "very lucky."

Marin General Hospital treated Wanek for a broken right leg, broken left arm, possible internal injuries, and many cuts and bruises.

He was then transferred to Kaiser Hospital in San Francisco in "fair condition."

Thundershowers Visit North State

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—A southerly flow of moist, unstable air moved over California today, causing scattered light showers and thundershowers.

The forecaster said variable cloudiness was expected to continue through tomorrow.

Thundershowers were reported likely in the mountains and possible in any area of Northern and Central California today and Tuesday.

Point Arguello and Paso Robles reported .03 of an inch of rain this morning and Fresno had a trace.

The five-day forecast, through next Saturday, said there will be no rain aside from scattered thundershowers occasionally in the mountains, and possibly a few in the lowlands.

Hemingway's Eldest Son Has Questions

KETCHUM, Idaho (UPI)—The eldest son of author Ernest Hemingway slipped into Ketchum quietly late last night and secluded himself in the lodge where the Nobel prize-winning author died.

Jack Hemingway, son of the famed novelist by his first wife, "had a lot of questions to ask" about the circumstances of his father's death from a shotgun blast, according to a friend of the Hemingway family.

So far the younger Hemingway has been unavailable to newsmen.

Ernest Hemingway's eldest son, John Hadley Hemingway of Mill Valley, and his family were on a fishing trip near Portland, Ore., when the novelist fatally shot himself yesterday.

John Hemingway, 36, lives at 400 Vista Linda in Mill Valley. He is a salesman with Merrill Lynch, Pierce, Fenner & Smith Inc., stocks and bonds firm, in San Francisco.

Mrs. Richard F. Parkinson, a neighbor, said today that the Hemingway family left Mill Valley a week ago Friday and had said they would return either July 4 or the day after.

She said they did not plan to visit Ernest Hemingway on this trip but were going to do some fishing at a camp near Portland. Mrs. Parkinson said the young Hemingways had visited Hemingway on a recent Spring vacation.

The Hemingways have lived at their present address about one year and previously at another location in Mill Valley.

John Hemingway and his wife, Puck, have two daughters, Muffit, 11, who was born in France, and Margot, 6, born in Portland.

Runaway Auto Smashes Gas Pipe; Sets Residence Afire

A runaway car rolled down Mar East Street in Tiburon last night, snapped off a gas pipe next to the home of James Murray and set a fire which is estimated to have caused $7,500 damage.

"The leaking gas," Fire Chief Frank J. Buscher said, "was like a gigantic blow torch, keeping the fire re-ignited."

Mr. and Mrs. James Murray were just about to have their dinner at 6:19 p.m. when they heard a crash as the car of their neighbor, Basil A. Coleman, ran into their house at 2476 Mar East Street.

Coleman, who lives at 2475 Mar East, told firemen he had parked his car in his driveway up the hill from the Murrays and placed a block under the wheel. He went into his house

President's Brother Asks Court Injunction

NEW YORK (AP)—The federal government today went into court seeking a Taft-Hartley law injunction to end the 18-day maritime strike.

President Kennedy, opposed in principal to use of the Taft-Hartley law, nevertheless called upon its provisions in the face of a split between seamen's union groups that has hopelessly snarled maritime negotiations.

On direct orders from Kennedy, who is vacationing at Hyannis Port, Mass., U.S. Atty. Robert M. Morgenthau filed a complaint under the Taft-Hartley law in federal district court.

If granted, the injunction would halt the strike of some 80,000 seamen for a period of 80 days.

A quick hearing on the complaint was scheduled.

Earlier, Labor Secretary Arthur J. Goldberg recommended to President Kennedy at Hyannis Port that the Taft-Hartley law injunction be sought. The two conferred during the morning at the president's summer home there.

The president, in announcing the decision to seek an injunction, said it should not interfere with efforts at settlement of the dispute.

He said reports given him "clearly manifest that a continuation of this strike imperils the national health and safety."

His statement was issued by the Cape Cod White House, after the president conferred with Secretary of Labor Arthur J. Goldberg.

Atty. Gen. Robert F. Kennedy, the president's brother, joined the patio discussion 15 minutes after the chief executive and Goldberg sat down together.

The president's statement said progress toward settlement has been made in the last few days "and I hope the parties will exert the necessary effort to achieve it quickly."

"However, the public interest does not permit further delay in applying for an injunction," he said.

"The circumstances of this dispute present new evidences for the imperative need of improvements in the national emergency section of the Taft-Hartley Act," Kennedy said.

"I have directed the secretary of labor promptly to prepare for submission to the Congress proposals for improving our mechanism of dealing with national emergency strikes."

The president's statement praised the fact-finding board named to determine whether the strike imperiled national health and safety.

Police Hunt Escapee In San Rafael

Police and sheriff's officers throughout Marin County today began a search for a 35-year-old convict who vanished from the San Quentin Prison textile mill about 4 a.m.

Associate Warden Dale R. Frady identified the missing prisoner as David Glyle Wills, received at the prison last May 12 on an Oakland conviction of lewd and lascivious conduct.

Wills is described as 6 feet 2 inches, 165 pounds, blue eyes, light brown hair, clad in blue denim and a dark jacket.

Search was concentrated in the San Rafael area when Police Sgt. Thomas Stephenson saw a man answering the prisoner's description on Francisco Boulevard near an army surplus store and later a mile away in front of the Ames Ford Motor Co. near the San Rafael Canal, police chief Charles J. Chiesa said.

Each time Stephenson spotted the suspicious person, it was necessary for him to turn his patrol car around—and each time the man had vanished.

Though Wills last was seen at 4 a.m. on his midnight to 8 a.m. work shift, the Marin County Sheriff's office did not officially know of his absence until the missing prisoner's description was broadcast about 9:02 a.m. over the county communications center radio.

San Rafael police already had been searching for Wills for some time. Searching with Stephenson was Capt. Joseph Brusatori.

Frady speculated that Wills managed to vault over a 20 foot wall by the textile mill—but he isn't sure.

"We'd like to know just how he did it," Frady said.

Larkspur Mulls Removal Of Redwood Trees

The removal of the marked redwood trees on Madrone Avenue will be discussed by the Larkspur city council at its regular meeting at 8 p.m. Wednesday in the city hall.

The city marked the trees with a yellow dot after a petition bearing 39 signatures asked that the trees be removed.

Mrs. Isabelle Moore will be sworn in as the new city clerk. Mrs. Moore was appointed to the position after the resignation of Mrs. Helen Wilson. Although Mrs. Moore's term started July 1, this is the first opportunity to swear her into office.

The deer problem on Redwood Avenue will also be taken up by the council. Harold Harcourt of 33 Redwood Avenue asked the council for permission to shoot the deer. The council decided to try getting rid of the deer by shooting them with tranquilizers and then hauling them away.

Other items to be considered by the council include a public hearing on an appeal for rezoning of the marsh area at Magnolia and Doherty Drive, the Madrone Woodlands Assessment District, the proposed assessment districts of Marina Vista and Hazel, and the 1961-62 budget.

Coast Guard Saves Capsized Crew

A Coast Guard patrol boat was fortunately on the scene last night when an 18-foot sailboat capsized off Sausalito Point dunking its three occupants.

The three unidentified yachtsmen were taken aboard the 40-foot patrol boat from Fort Point and their vessel towed into port. The accident happened shortly after 8:30 p.m. a short distance off shore from the Ondine Restaurant, 558 Bridgeway Boulevard.

Berlin War Threat
WASHINGTON (UPI)—Gen. Thomas D. White says there is "a fair chance" of war over Berlin and the gravity of the situation hasn't been driven home to the American people.

White, who retired last week as Air Force chief of staff, said yesterday some form of mobilization might well be necessary to convince the nation of the seriousness of the Berlin crisis.

WORLD NEWS IN BRIEF

Mexican Elections
MEXICO CITY (UPI)—The ruling Revolutionary Institutions (PRI) party today retained control of Mexico's politics by sweeping the uneventful national election to name 178 deputies and five state governors.

Official reports will not be made public for some time, but unofficial tabulations indicated PRI captured four state governorships and a big majority of the legislature.

Legion Asks Probe
LONG BEACH (UPI)—The California American Legion demands a full-scale investigation of the U. S. State Department.

The 4,300 delegates charged Sunday that Communist sympathizers in the State Department "have molded schemes for our destruction."

Their resolution said: "The State Department has for years been infiltrated by men who have been sympathetic to Soviet Russia and the cause of communism."

Dominican President
CIUDAD TRUJILLO, Dominican Republic (UPI)—Generalissimo Rafael Trujillo's hand-picked President Joaquin Balaguer was given a free hand to name his own cabinet today after 11 of the 12 ministers resigned. But they asked him to keep the policies of the slain dictator.

The resignations came after the ruling Dominican Party voted unanimously to back the 53-year-old Balaguer, professor-diplomat turned politician.

Sympathy Expression
TOKYO (UPI)—President Kennedy today cabled an expression of deep concern and sympathy over the disastrous floods that hit parts of Japan last week, leaving 253 dead and 133 missing.

Kennedy's message to Prime Minister Hayato Ikeda said: "I know all of the people of the United States join with Mrs. Kennedy and me in expressing our deep concern and sympathy."

Newport Festival
NEWPORT, R. I. (UPI)—Rain failed to dampen the enthusiasm of 11,000 music lovers at the Newport jazz festival last night.

Authorities said last night's session and the two previous festival performances were very calm compared to last year's beer riot in which 2,000 persons were arrested.

Congress Hibernates
WASHINGTON (UPI)—Congress hung out the "no business" sign this week as it took a final breather before starting the big push toward final adjournment by Labor Day.

No major business was scheduled in either the Senate or the House until next week. Most members of both branches headed homeward for Independence Day oratory.

Bonds Retired
SACRAMENTO (UPI)—It took 52 years, but California finally paid off its first highway bond issue.

The loan amounted to $18 million and interest collected by bond holders since 1909 was $1,204,200.

State officials, who announced the final payment today, said two more highway bond issues—amounting to $55 million—will be paid off by 1965.

Since 1919, the state has financed highway construction with gasoline taxes, rather than bonds.

Cuba Plane Hijacked
MIAMI (UPI)—A Cuban commercial airplane carrying 16 persons and a crew of three was hijacked in flight and forced to land at Miami International airport today, the U.S. Immigration Service reported.

Immigration officials said it was reported that a guard riding in the aircraft had been shot three times. He was taken to the hospital with bullet wounds in the stomach and leg.

An Immigration Department spokesman said the plane was commandeered between Verdadero Beach and Havana and forced to fly here.

Dam Builder Dies
LOS ANGELES (UPI)—Once-prominent construction man Lynn S. Atkinson Jr., 68, leaped to his death yesterday from a 12th-story window, leaving a note blaming smog for his ill health, police reported.

Atkinson was head of a company which built Coolidge Dam in Arizona and Paradise Dam and reservoir to supply water to Oakland, Berkeley and Alameda.

Population Growth
SACRAMENTO (UPI)—If California is beginning to look a little crowded, it's no wonder.

When the fiscal year ended at midnight Friday, there were 16,445,000 residents of the Golden State according to estimates of the state finance department's population research section.

In the 12-month period which ended Friday, 581,000 new residents—including 241,000 in diapers—arrived in California.

Lost Diamond Found
LONDON (UPI)—A $420,000 diamond lost in the mails four days has been found in Geneva, Switzerland, a spokesman for Sotheby's Salesrooms said today.

The 78-carat gem—bigger than a quarter—turned up in the Geneva customs after an international search, the spokesman said. It is one of the world's biggest unmounted diamonds.

Eichmann Memory Fails
JERUSALEM (UPI)—Adolf Eichmann's memory failed him repeatedly today.

But he admitted to the court trying him for mass murder that he "may" have transmitted orders and definitely did arrange the trains and timetables that sent tens of thousands of European Jews to the gas chambers.

Eichmann testified for another five hours. It was his tenth day as his own sole witness.

Total U.S. Debt Now More Than 1 Trillion

NEW YORK (UPI)—Today we are trillionaires. The new status works both ways.

Secretary of the Treasury Douglas Dillon says America's total debt at all levels tops a trillion dollars for the first time.

But look at the balance sheet of Americans as individuals. Their current assets are put at 959 billion dollars. Add their fixed assets of 607 billion dollars, and U.S. citizens can claim to be worth $1,566,000,000,000.

Of course, Secretary Dillon points out at the same time that individual debt totals 296 billion dollars and continues to rise.

And as citizens we have a responsibility for the 290-billion-dollar federal debt and the 69-billion-dollar state and local debts. As stockholders they have an interest in corporate debt of 358 billion dollars. Corporate assets are much higher than this, and governments have financial and tangible assets, 500.

Can you as American citizens afford to carry all this debt? A lot of people say no. But look at the brighter side of the financial balance sheet.

At the 1961 halfway point personal income is running at 414 billion dollars a year. And personal savings have been climbing in the first half of 1961. Then there are those financial assets of 959 billion dollars.

That figure is garnered from reports of the Securities and Exchange Commission, the Federal Reserve Board, and the Department of Commerce.

The financial assets include 343 billion dollars in preferred and common stocks, 102 billion dollars in government securities, 26 billion dollars in other securities such as corporate bonds and notes, nearly 67 billion dollars in savings and loan associations and credit unions, more than 181 billion dollars in currency and bank deposits. To that are added more than 149 billion dollars in private insurance and pension reserves and 70 billion dollars in various government insurance and pension reserves.

The fixed assets are figured this way: 404 billion dollars in home ownership and 203 billion dollars in current value of durable goods owned. The durable-goods equity is figured by totaling consumer purchases in the last 10 years, depreciated at 10 per cent annually.

The figuring to reach the total assets of one and half trillion is subject to debate among accountants, as all such overall estimates are.

And the question of whether individuals' assets justify the steadily climbing personal debt—or whether the national economy, growing jerkily but steadily, justifies the rising total of government and private debt—is up for sharp debate in and out of Congress.

In New York financial circles the majority opinion is that both private and public debt is still on a sound basis. That is, the national personal assets and the current national and personal incomes can carry the debt load without undue strain.

Ernest Hemingway, Literary Giant In His Own Time, Dies By Shotgun

SUN VALLEY, Idaho (AP) — Novelist Ernest Hemingway, 61, a literary giant who ranked with the greatest of his age, died of a shotgun blast in the head yesterday.

His wife Mary, awakened by the shot, found the body clad in pajamas just off the living room of their secluded retreat house.

She called a doctor although death apparently was instantaneous.

"Mr. Hemingway accidentally killed himself while cleaning a gun this morning at 7:30 a.m.," she said in a brief statement read to reporters by a family friend. She was taken to a hospital and given a sedative.

Coroner Ray McGoldrick said it was "a self-inflicted wound" that could have been accidental or otherwise. He said no inquest is planned unless something new develops.

Sheriff Frank Hewitt said authorities planned to talk with Mrs. Hemingway if a doctor permits.

WORLD SHOCKED

Hemingway's violent death shocked the literary world. There were expressions of profound regret from President Kennedy to his obscure neighbors in Idaho.

To Hemingway, this was home—a quiet retreat far from the turbulent world of "Farewell to Arms," "Across the River and Into the Trees," "For Whom the Bell Tolls."

It was here that he came to hunt, relax and work. To local citizens he was as well known as the artful bearded hunter as the Nobel and Pulitzer prize winner, the author of the brilliant "Old Man and the Sea."

It was here that he worked on a new major novel, and a book of reminiscences of his youth.

It will be here that they lay Ernest Hemingway to rest in private funeral services tentatively set for Friday.

Hemingway, son of a physician, was born in Oak Park, Ill., July 21, 1899, married four times and had three sons. His father, Dr. Clarence E. Hemingway, also suffered from high blood pressure and diabetes. He was found dead of a gun wound at his Oak Park home in 1928.

Dr. Carlos Baker of Princeton, a Hemingway scholar, said the father killed himself because of ill health.

DIABETES

Ernest wrote him from Mayo's this spring and said he was suffering from incipient diabetes, kept under control by diet.

"He wrote that his weight had reduced from 220 to 175 pounds and that doctors told him if he kept his weight down he had a good chance of coming back strong," Dr. Baker said.

Dr. Baker said a Hemingway short story, "Fathers and Sons," in which the son is troubled by the father's suicide, was autobiographical.

President Kennedy, a Pulitzer Prize winner himself, said of Hemingway:

"Few Americans had a greater impact on the emotions and attitudes of the American people than Ernest Hemingway. From his first emergence as one of the bright literary stars in Paris during the 20s—as a chronicler of the 'lost generation' which he was to immortalize—he almost single handedly transformed the literature and the ways of thought of men and women in every country in the world."

Hemingway was a rugged outdoorsman even in his youth. After high school Hemingway became a cub reporter for the Kansas City Star, but left soon to become an ambulance driver on the Italian front in World War I.

"A Farewell to Arms," in which Gary Cooper starred when it was made into a movie, was based partially on his war experiences. It was with this novel in 1929 that Hemingway won world renown.

STEIN DISCIPLE

In the Paris of the 1920s, Hemingway became a disciple of Gertrude Stein, who once called him "the lost generation." It was on this theme that Hemingway built his early reputation with his novel, "The Sun Also Rises," in 1926.

Wars always fascinated Hemingway. He entered enthusiastically

Santa's Letter A Little Late

Christmas in July came in the form of a letter to the Mill Valley Independent-Journal office Saturday.

The letter was replaced in its envelope and forwarded to the North Pole.

JFK Advised To Invoke T-H In Maritime Strike

HYANNIS PORT, Mass. (AP)—The Cape Cod White House indicated today that Secretary of Labor Arthur J. Goldberg has recommended that President Kennedy invoke a Taft-Hartley Law injunction to halt the maritime strike.

Newsmen were told that Goldberg and Kennedy began conferring on the shipping strike at 9:50 a.m. on the patio of the President's summer home here.

A White House announcement added merely:

"It appears that Secretary Goldberg would recommend the use of the Taft-Hartley Law."

Goldberg brought with him a report from the fact-finding board appointed by Kennedy to determine whether the strike, now in its 18th day, imperils the national health and safety.

Atty. Gen. Robert F. Kennedy, the President's brother, joined the patio discussion 15 minutes after the President and Goldberg sat down together.

The attorney general, on the President's instruction, would be the official to initiate court proceedings to obtain an order stopping the walkout on three coasts for 80 days.

In one of two reports to Kennedy, the fact-finding board said some 340 of the 900 ships originally affected by the multi-union strike are now able to operate.

The board headed by David L. Cole, former director of the Federal Mediation and Conciliation Service, said the strike "has presented a complex and confused list of issues and disputes between labor and management."

Much more than that is involved, it said, because of the way the shipping business is organized.

"Much of the difficulty has come from the intense rivalry among the five unions involved and from the differences in the economic interests of the various employer organizations," the board told Kennedy.

The board noted the Taft-Hartley law prohibits any recommendations. Neither its report on the character of the dispute nor the collective bargaining efforts that have produced some agreements included specific conclusions on the strike's impact on the nation's health and safety.

Novato Board To Discuss Land Purchase

Novato school board of trustees will meet again at 8 p.m. Wednesday in the administration building to discuss possible purchase of land next to the high school for $48,000.

The Wednesday meeting was set up after Saturday morning's session, when attorney Philip Kennedy, representing the landowners, offered to sell eight lots at $6,000 per lot. Each lot is about 7,500 square feet. They are in Novato Hills subdivision and border on Washington Street.

Supt. W. J. J. Smith said Kennedy's offer of $6,000 includes $3,000 for bare land and $3,000 for utilities and improvements. The lots, if purchased, will provide space for a new elementary school and also add to the high school grounds.

The school board members also elected Earl Marshall as new chairman for the coming year. He succeeds Mrs. Leonora Dougherty, who was named clerk of the board.

Mrs. Howard Williams of Stockton.

The award for the best local dog was won by a Welsh corgi pembroke, owned by Carol R. Simonds of 23 Meadow Drive, San Rafael. The dog, named Rover Run Minstrel Man, also took top place in open competition for the working group. He was handled by Fay Owyong, 1125 Meadow Sweet Drive, Corte Madera.

Supervisors Only Sputter Their Way Through Agenda

Premature July 4 fireworks sizzled and sputtered in this morning's session of the Marin County Board of Supervisors but no full-scale explosion developed on the administrator's job.

"You're trying to do things working from the bottom toward the top," complained Supervisor William Gnos when it became evident that there was to be no immediate settlement of this paramount problem.

Clerk George S. Jones, who has said he will certify the validity of enough signatures to carry a proposal of popular referendum on the position, told Morris N. Finis of Fairfax and others of the Marin Council for Civic Affairs that he would not bring this before the board until 4:30 p.m.

Morning developments included:

1. Lengthy discussion of proposed "modernization" of county personnel procedure after Personnel Chairman Julius H. Selinger had unsuccessfully protested that clarification of the administrator's situation should precede.
2. A civil defense squabble caused by state protest that Marin should make Sheriff Louis P. Mountanos "assistant director" rather than "coordinator"—leading Supervisor Walter R. Castro to stage unsuccessful effort to deal with the administrator position first.
3. Defeat 3-2 of a Castro motion, backed only by Gnos, to re-ent the administrator's offices on which notice of termination has been given.
4. Adoption of several resolutions (Castro voting "No" to all) canvassing last week's election in which both low-rent federal housing and million-dollar bond issue for county hospital were defeated.

BRUCE RETURNS
Administrator Alan Bruce, back from the vacation he started to take the day after his services were terminated June 23 through action of the supervisors which apparently has been offset by the referendum petition, sat impassive through all these proceedings and contributed from time to time in his accustomed fashion.

He had said of his personnel proposals, put forward last spring, that without an administrator the county should not attempt to put them into effect. But he commented item by item, supporting his case against a presentation by Selinger in favor of status quo.

"A single thread runs through," said Bruce of his plan, "I'm concerned with the rights of permanent employees but less concerned with the rights of applicants—we should get real crackerjack employees and the best judgment on this is that of the department heads."

Selinger's case was that a large body of procedure has grown up, and the commission's powers should not be disturbed.

An opinion by county counsel found that the changes proposed were not such as to justify putting them before the voters. But Chairman William D. Fusselman said: "If you place such great weight on what you've acquired from the board through the years, you have something that should be submitted to the people for vote."

'NO REFLECTION'
Sheriff Louis P. Mountanos said that "the people elect the sheriff . . . if they have such faith, he should select those for promotion"—a point Selinger said could be made by any elected department head and that the present personnel system merely represents good government, no reflection on anybody's integrity.

After Fusselman said no decision would be made today, a complaint from the state Civil Defense Office about the board's recent appointment of Mountanos as "civil defense coordinator" was heard and it was agreed to change this title, taken from Bruce, to assistant director under Fusselman.

"I'd like to know first what happens to the administrator," said Castro, but Fusselman insisted "that has nothing to do with it . . . the referendum petition has made no difference" as to civil defense.

The change in title was finally pushed through 3-2, Castro and Gnos dissenting and Jean Smith was changed from assistant coordinator to "deputy to the assistant director."

Castro protested that removal of the work and files from the administrator's office and "to turn the key in the door" didn't represent good government, and said: "I move that we re-ent the offices across the street" (meaning the administrator's quarters.)

Gnos seconded, but the majority held firm behind Fusselman.

Jones reported of last week's election that 14,260 voted on the low rent housing, 5,799 for and 8,461 against; on the hospital bond issue 14,252 votes were cast, 6,940 for and 7,312 against.

Burn Victim Succumbs At Hospital

Although initially termed in critical condition, she rallied and had seemed on the way to recovery. Pneumonia was de-

Paul O'Rourke Quits Again As Health Officer

A former Novato physician today wound up his stormy career as Imperial County health officer by resigning for a second time, and getting immediate unanimous acceptance.

Dr. Paul F. O'Rourke sent a letter to the county commissioners saying they had made clear that "political pressure on the board to force my resignation has become intolerably strong."

Last April when he offered to step down, the commission first accepted his resignation, then reinstated him. But today the board at once accepted, effective Aug. 1, with no intimation of changing again.

"I am glad to get it (the resignation)," said Commissioner Charles Kilgore, apparently summing up for his colleagues. But the O'Rourke letter doggedly insisted that "there appears to be no justifiable reason to ask for my resignation."

At the time of the April resignation O'Rourke said he acted due to pressure from outside sources, particularly the then head of the California Medical Assn., Dr. Warren L. Bostick of San Rafael.

O'Rourke's views on government and medicine caused Bostick to charge, said O'Rourke, that he was "if not a Communist, a left-wing labor sympathizer."

Other troubles arose when Mrs. O'Rourke, a Quaker and a Pacifist, refused to salute the Flag. O'Rourke said Imperial Valley farmers opposed him as an alleged labor sympathizer because he made a study of overcrowded conditions at the county jail during last winter's attempt at organizing farm workers.

terminated to be the actual cause of death by an autopsy.

Funeral services will be at 10 a.m. Wednesday at the N. Gray and Co. mortuary at Divisadero and Post Streets, San Francisco. Private burial will be at Cypress Lawn, Colma.

A widow, Mrs. Menefee was granddaughter of the late Domingo Ghirardelli, founder of the chocolate firm, and daughter of the late A.D. Ghirardelli who succeeded to the company's presidency.

The fire in her home occurred in the afternoon. Firemen were compelled to break down the door. They found Mrs. Menefee unconscious and burned in the bathroom. She was placed in an oxygen tent, having suffered second and third degree burns on her face and arms.

A pet poodle was found huddled and severely burned in a bedroom closet.

MARIE P. COLE

Funeral services are pending for Marie E. Cole, 64, who died of a heart attack Sunday in Mill Valley at the home of her daughter.

Mrs. Cole, who had lived 44 years in Marin County, died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Joseph De Tomasi at 98 Ryan Avenue. Mrs. Cole's home was at 53 Bay View Terrace.

She is survived by her daughter; a son, Paul Edward Ryan of Fairfax; a sister, Mrs. Ethel Sullivan of San Francisco, and two grandchildren.

Arrangements are pending at Russell and Gooch Mortuary in Mill Valley.

MAY BILLINGS WARD

Family graveside services will be held Thursday for May Billings Ward, 82, wife of a former mayor of Mill Valley, who died yesterday in Mill Valley after a long illness.

Mrs. Ward, who had lived at 70 Bigelow Avenue, died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. R. D. Keiler at 160 Corte Madera Avenue. Mrs. Ward had resided in Mill Valley since 1902, first visiting the city during the summers starting in 1890.

Her late husband, Col. Roy Culver Ward, U.S. army infantry, was twice mayor of Mill Valley, first between 1920 and 1924 and second between 1932 and 1934.

Her late father was responsible for giving the land and the building to house the present Scout Hall in Mill Valley. Mrs. Ward was a native of San Francisco.

She is survived by three daughters, Mrs. Keiler; Mrs. Marion G. Wolford of Mill Valley and Mrs. Susannah De Chambeau of Yerington, Nev., five grandchildren and eight great grandchildren.

Services will be at the San Francisco National Cemetery, Presidio. Arrangements are being taken care of by the Russell and Gooch Mortuary in Mill Valley.

MARY V. HENNESSY

Funeral services will be held in Nevada City, Calif., Wednesday for Mrs. Mary Vance Hennessy, 55, who lived for 15 years in Larkspur and Fairfax before moving to Nevada County in 1957.

She died yesterday in Nevada City after a year's illness. She leaves her husband, retired Air Force Capt. Neil Roger Hennessy, who is a county supervisor in Nevada County; her mother, Mary Vance of Nevada City; two daughters, Moira Johnstone of Florida and Kathleen Leyva of San Jose; and six grandchildren.

Good Health
Depends On Body's Nerve Network

by Dr. Robert W. Pearce

The greatest communications system ever built is as old as mankind and will never be out of date. It is more common than the telephone but more complex than the TVA and a fleet of electronic space ships combined. What is this system?

Your nervous system . . . the incredibly vast network of fibers which links the brain, directly or indirectly with every cell, every organ and every part of your body.

The brain, of course, is the power house which generates, dispatches, receives and interprets messages to and from various parts of your body. The brain and its nerve network are in action every moment of your life—awake or asleep.

The nervous system is so complex that the most learned anatomists and physiologists know very little of its magnitude and function. The greatest electrical project ever conceived by man is insignificant compared with the human power system. One expert has estimated that there are 400 trillion nerve fibers passing through the average human skull into the spinal cord.

What happens when something goes wrong with the nerve network? When a nerve fails to deliver its proper quota of "power" to any part of the body, that part will lose its efficiency and eventually will become diseased because of an interference to the nerve.

Interferences occur most frequently in the spine when a displaced spinal bone (vertebra) will pinch or stretch the nerves within the spine or just outside it. The obvious remedy is to remove the interference.

Chiropractors specialize in removing spinal obstructions to the nervous system. This can be done by X-ray analysis and by skillful hand adjustments of any vertebra found to be causing interference.

Dr. R. W. Pearce, D.C., practices the Palmer Method. His office is at 1628 Fifth Ave., San Rafael, GL 3-6201. (Adv.)

2 Million Greet MacArthur On Philippine Visit

MANILA (UPI)—General of the Army Douglas A. MacArthur came back to the scene of his World War II triumphs today and was hailed as a hero by the people of this young republic.

The 81-year-old MacArthur, standing straight in the sun, caused tears and cheers and shivers of joy as he announced to 18,000 Filipinos who greeted him at the airport:

"My dear friends, I have returned."

His wife, Jean, standing proudly at his side, fought to keep back her tears but the eyes of many Filipinos glistened unashamedly. MacArthur's own emotions were masked somewhat by dark glasses.

President and Mrs. Carlos P. Garcia cast protocol to the winds and met the old soldier at the plane, loaned to him for the trip by President Kennedy. MacArthur, in the khaki uniform and the same battle-worn hat that he wore during World War II and the Korean War, acted like a man who had been away from home a long time.

GREETED COMRADES

It had been ten years since he had been in the Far East. At the airport he walked out of his way to shake hands with old comrades in arms after greeting Philippine officials and the diplomatic corps.

Garcia contrasted MacArthur's return to liberate the Philippines in 1944 with his arrival today which he said was "marked by a people full of hope and determination."

Then the president ushered the general into an open sedan for a five-mile motorcade into the city through a cheering mass of Filipinos who had streamed into the city from miles around.

The bright, tropical sun was dipping into Manila Bay as MacArthur's motorcade moved slowly through hundreds of thousands of cheering Filipinos.

Preliminary estimates placed the number of persons packed shoulder to shoulder along the five-mile route at almost two million—nearly twice the size of the crowd that welcomed President Eisenhower to the Philippines last year.

The Escolta—Manila's downtown street of swank shops and huge theaters—was the scene of near pandemonium before the motorcade arrived for a welcome with tons of ticker-tape.

DENSE THROG

Police and soldiers lining the street locked arms trying to keep the dense throng from engulfing MacArthur's car.

The general, smiling and waving acknowledgement to the cheers, saw sparkling new buildings which have arisen since he liberated the city.

Multi-colored confetti rained on him from shops, office buildings and theaters.

MacArthur sat in the rear seat of the car at the right of President Garcia. He waved from time to time at people standing ten deep on the sidewalks and hanging from the buildings.

The crowd cheered and waved tiny flags of the Philippines and the United States.

Flags were draped from the buildings, along with rectangular banners lettered "Mabuhay MacArthur," and red, white and blue bunting.

Some of the spectators broke the cordon set by some 150 policemen and military troopers, forcing MacArthur's limousine to halt several times.

"VICTORY JOE"

Cheers of "Victory Joe" and "Mabuhay" echoed and re-echoed as MacArthur passed the route. "Victory Joe" is an old GI expression Filipinos learned during the Pacific war.

A Philippine Air Force plane and a helicopter flew overhead shortly before the motorcade reached the business district. The motorcade was led by police motorcycle escorts, an ambulance and a signal corps truck for traffic control.

The crowd started gathering in the Escolta and the adjoining Jones bridge crossing Pasay River, three hours before MacArthur arrived. They paid 20 centavos for the MacArthur welcome pennants which they waved.

Army Constabulary troopers were guarding the MacArthur parade route since last Saturday. They remained out of sight but on guard against any security violation.

Several hundred U. S. sailors, enjoying shore leave from U. S. Seventh Fleet vessels, joined the Philippine throng in the Escolta to welcome MacArthur.

STREET SWEEPERS

A group of broom-swinging city janitors came on the heels of the motorcade to comply with Manila city ordinances prohibiting littering of streets with paper.

Eight Philippine Air Force jet fighters escorted MacArthur's plane the last miles across historic Bataan Peninsula and Corregidor Island, where MacArthur vowed in the darkest days of World War II to return.

When the old soldier and his smiling wife landed in a bright tropical sun, with them were the general's long-time aide, Maj. Gen. Courtney Whitney, and Philippine Ambassador to the United States Carlos P. Romulo and Mrs. Romulo.

Mrs. MacArthur wore a princess gray summer dress and as they appeared in the plane's doorway the crowd shouted the first of the many Mabuhays (long lives) which the MacArthurs will hear many times during their visit.

President and Mrs. Garcia met the MacArthurs at the foot of the ramp. Garcia invited the MacArthurs for this country's 15th Independence Day celebrations beginning tomorrow.

Drainage Job Proposal To Be Submitted

New Premier In Korea Army Junta Shapeup

The Marina Village drainage improvement proposals will be presented to the town council of Corte Madera at its meeting at 7:30 tonight in the town hall.

The Marina Village Improvement Assn., through its president, Norman Eaton, has asked that the city assume the problem of drainage in that area. The council asked City Manager Arthur H. Brandon to present several cost sharing plans to the council.

The proposed third ordinance, which was so vigorously protested at its public hearing on June 5, will be discussed by the town attorney, Sherrod Davis. The attorney, at the council meeting on June 19, said he questioned that the town had the authority to go on private property and tell a man what trees he could and could not cut down.

Other items to be considered by the council include appointments to the park and recreation commission and the joint recreation commission, the plan for phase two of Paradise Drive, and several traffic signs.

Larkspur Building Permits Decrease

The city of Larkspur showed a decline in building permits issued in June of this year over June of last year.

This year the city issued 22 permits totaling $243,361 in construction. Last year's total for the month was $415,738. However, nearly $300,000 of that figure was due to the Catholic school.

Liability insurance for the schools will be one of the main items on the Tamalpais Union High School District board of trustees agenda when it meets at 8 p.m. tonight in the district offices in Larkspur.

Other items to be considered by the board on a short agenda include authorizing the superintendent to act and sign for the district. This is an annual procedure at the beginning of each fiscal year.

The board will also consider adoption of new textbooks and courses of study.

SEOUL, Korea (UPI)—Maj. Gen. Pak Chung Hi, an ardent nationalist, took over from Lt. Gen. Chang Do-Young as chief of the Republic of Korea's ruling military junta today in a shakeup of the supreme council of national reconstruction.

A short time later it was announced that 40 generals and admirals were retired from active service today.

Pak, 45, has been reported to be the real figure behind the May 16 revolt which overthrew the government of Premier John M. Chang. Although known as a staunch anti-Communist now, he once was convicted of Communist collaboration.

Pak is one of the few South Korean military officers who never were really close to the American military advisers. He recently told a UPI correspondent: "We really do not care what the Americans or any other foreigners think of our actions."

Shortly after World War II, Pak was dishonorably discharged from the army for Communist collaboration and sentenced to death. He said his conviction was a mistake, explaining that two friends of his brother, an admitted Communist, came to him for refuge. Captured after the so-called Taejon incident, when an army regiment revolted under Communist instigation, they implicated Pak.

Pak was recalled to service as a major after the Korean War erupted and the death sentence was waived.

A statement of Chang Do-Young's resignation was read to newsmen by ROK Army Col. Won Chong Yun, official spokesman for the supreme council.

It said Chang, 38, had resigned as both chairman of the council and as chief of the cabinet, or premier, because he was not qualified to lead the revolution.

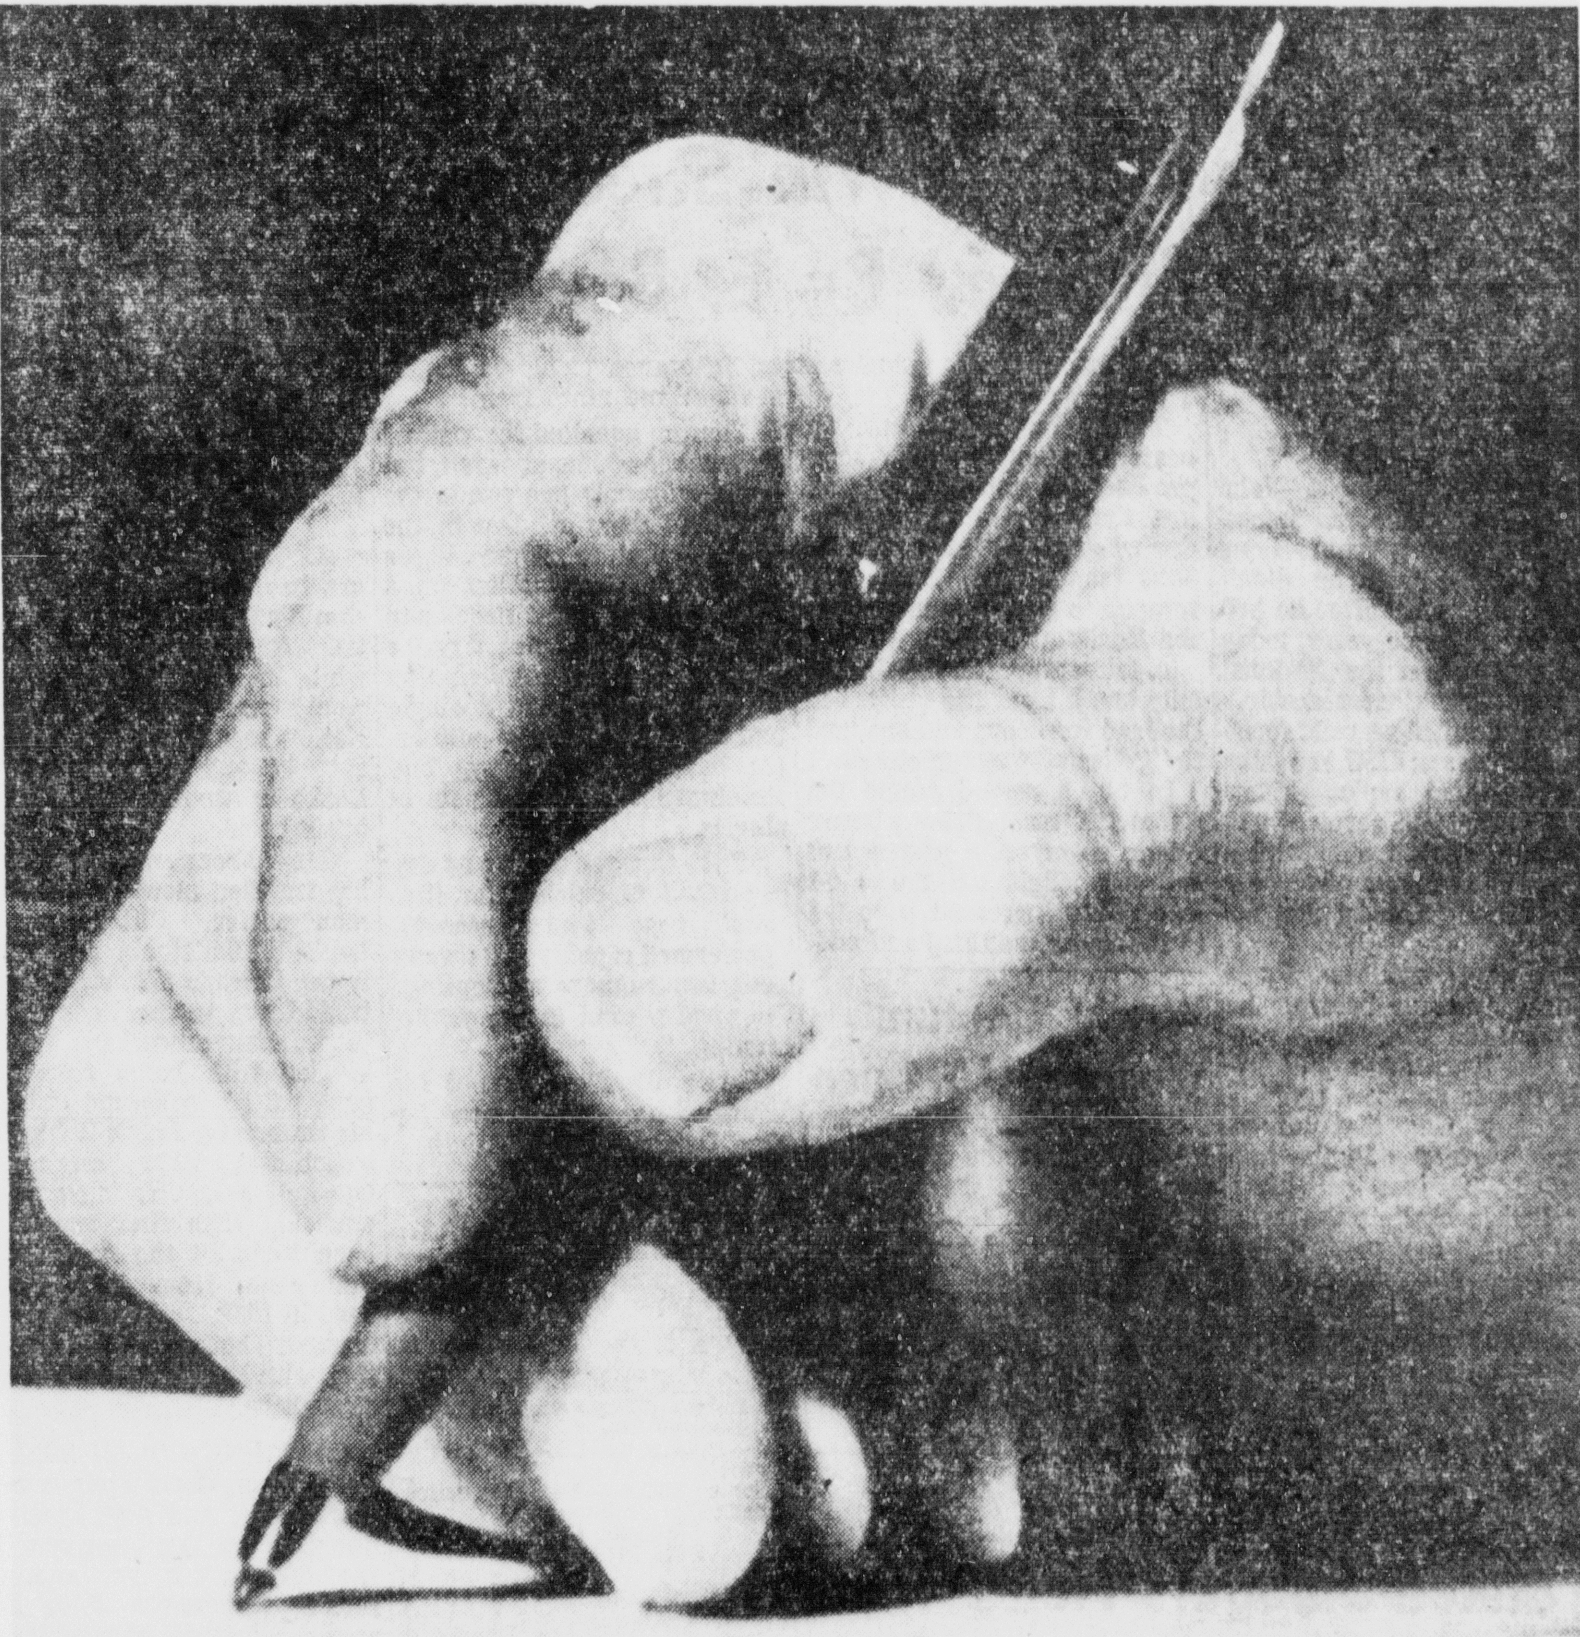

"I realize that a person who commands more confidence from the people both at home and abroad is required to lead the revolution more actively," he was quoted as saying.

Won said there was "nothing to reports that Chang had been arrested." But he said he did not know what would happen to him.

As Won read the statement in the press room of the old capital building, Chang left his office on the floor above. He got into a military vehicle and left for an undisclosed destination under military escort.

Won said the council accepted Chang's resignation and named Pak as chairman of the all-powerful junta. Former Lt. Gen. (Tiger) Song Yo Chan, who was army chief of staff during the 1960 revolt which ousted the Syngman Rhee regime, was appointed cabinet chief.

Won said three other members of the supreme council also resigned, reducing the all-powerful council from 32 to 28 members.

"Dear Editor: I disagree . . ."

You'll never see these words in Izvestia or Pravda. Yet they're the most meaningful any newspaper can print.

They outweigh the news of astronauts. They're more important than news of international affairs—or of the Giants.

They say more about this country than all the books on freedom. They can be written by Republicans or Democrats, ditch diggers or bank presidents, old men or children . . . by anyone, on any subject, at any time.

And they are printed . . . free.

In the Independent-Journal, this forum for all shades of opinion is called, "What Our Readers Say." Some opinions challenge us for our stand on an issue; some agree with us; others offer new approaches to a problem.

More important than any view, of course, (ours included) is the right to express it. This is why your "Letter to the Editor" is a vital document.

And it is why we at the I-J regard these public columns as something more than a newspaper tradition. Through black type and white paper they build the strongest barricade around the right to free and personal expression.

UNBEATEN IN STATE SEMI-PRO TOURNEY

S.R. Continues Batting Splurge

By KARL BARRON
San Rafael Merchants won their second game yesterday in the California Semi-Pro Baseball Tournament at Albert Field, while two other Marin clubs met their first defeat over the five-game weekend.

Al Endriss' Merchants won handily over the Mill Valley Merchants, 16 to 1. The Mill Valley team, with a second game scheduled at home with the Giant Rookies, conceded after seven innings, and headed south to another defeat.

Don Lanters, running the team in the absence of Endriss, started flashy left-hander Dave Blasquez, who held Mill Valley to three hits in six innings. Then, with an 11-run bulge, Jack Sovereign took over. The big right-hander gave a hit to Dave Perlis, then walked two to load the bases. He got the next hitter on an infield fly, and he got the third batter on a fly ball to left.

BIG HITTERS
Rich Curry, Dan Ranari and Mike Bresnan each collected two hits.
San Anselmo's Ongaro Plumber lost a tough one Saturday night to the Walnut Creek Merchants, 9 to 8.

Starter Ron Cole, after getting through two innings, blew up in the third, giving up six hits, and hitting a batter. He had hit two batters in the second but got out without a score. By the time the dust cleared in the third, Walnut Creek had scored five runs. Fred Thurman took over from Cole, got himself into trouble and was relieved by Dick Spackman. The Plumber, who had scored one in the second, came back to the lead in the bottom of the third with five runs, featuring Rich Rochin's homer, Ralph Boccabella's triple and Tim Reardon's double.

The Merchants took over in the fourth with three more tallies, making it 8 to 6. Ongaro garnered one in the seventh and tied it up in the eighth. Walnut Creek took the lead with a score in the ninth, and the Plumber just couldn't make it.

EUREKA WINS
In another week-end action, the Melody Ramblers of Richmond beat the Pleasant Hill Baseball Assn. Saturday, 16 to 11, then were drubbed last night by the powerful Eureka Crabs, 13 to 3.

Acme Carpet won over the Placerville Outlaws in yesterday's second game by a score of 11 to 5.
Tonight at 6 o'clock at Albert Field a double-header of teams with one loss gets underway. Fighting to stay alive in the double elimination tourney will be S. F. Misracks vs. Pleasant Hill at 6 and Ongaro Plumber against Mill Valley Merchants at 9 p.m.

PICKOFF FAILS — Shortstop Don Murray of San Rafael Merchants scoots back to first base ahead of pickoff attempt in game against Mill Valley at San Rafael yesterday. Giants Fade Toward Fourth Place After Pirate Series

PITTSBURGH (UPI)—The San Francisco Giants today felt a bit like ancient Satchel Paige, who allegedly once said he never looked behind because someone might be following him.

The Giants seemingly had the opener in the bag going into the eighth. But before the inning was over Manager Alvin Dark had to use three pitchers to contain the Pirates, who batted around in the big rally.

Dick Groat, making his first start since being benched earlier in the week, highlighted the inning by smacking a double that scored Bill Virdon with the winning run.

Five Giant hurlers paraded to the mound in all, with reliever Mike McCormick (7-8) suffering the loss. Harvey Haddix (6-3), the third of four pitchers, was the winner.

Orlando Cepeda drove across three runs with his 21st homer and a double. Ed Bressoud also belted a solo round-tripper.

NO ALL STARS, BUT . . .

Redlegs May Laugh Their Way To Bank

By ASSOCIATED PRESS
The Cincinnati Reds, snubbed by their fellow men in the All-Star voting, may be laughing all the way to the bank next October. Although no Red was named to the starting All-Star lineup in the vote of players, managers and coaches, the club leads the National League as the field nears the traditional July 4th landmark.

A few years back (1957), a last-minute deluge of fan votes from Cincinnati forced a revision of the All-Star voting. The fans voted an all-Cincinnati lineup except for one position. Commissioner Ford Frick changed the team and threw the game back to the players the following year. There are many fans in Cincinnati today who think their Reds could take on the best in either league right now.

The BULLPEN

With JOHN J. CONNOLLY

Redlegs Just Aren't That Good, But Someone Had Better Tell 'Em

Baseball tradition gives the team in front of the pack on the Fourth of July a good chance to go all the way and cop the pennant. Time, then, to take a closer look at those surprising Cincinnati Reds.

Back on opening day, "The Bullpen" listed all the National League clubs as if they were being handicapped for a horse race. Of the Reds, this column said, "Slow starter, stumbles badly, but We aren't making any claims of omniscience. We picked the Reds for sixth place, and we still don't think they'll win the championship.

The wonder of it all is, what in the world has kept this bunch of misfits on top this long? Let's take a look at the Reds.

Manager Freddie Hutchinson must have the worst infield in the National League. At first base, near-rookie Gordon Coleman, obtained from Cleveland in 1959, spent most of 1960 with Seattle in the Coast League. Batting .268 and fielding very adequately.

AT SECOND and short there are two old St. Louis castoffs, Don Blasingame and Eddie Kasko. Any fan who saw Blas while he was with the Giants would not want him back. Kasko has never had a solid shot at any position before. Kasko is around .300; Blas is hitting .250.

Gene Freese at third base has traveled more than a Pullman porter. Pittsburgh, St. Louis, Philadelphia and finally the Chicago White Sox, who traded him to the Reds to try to get some power! All he hits is .300 with home runs and runs batted in second only to his teammate, Frank Robinson.

Robinson, Vada Pinson and Gus Bell make up a fair enough outfield. The first two have been Reds all the way, while Bell came from the Pirates back in 1952. Pinson and Robinson are both over .300 in hitting, with Bell at .250. No weakness there.

CATCHING COULD kill the Reds. Young Jerry Zimmerman is a rookie, and now ex-Giant Bob Schmidt has been sent to the minors for yet another rookie, 23-year-old John Edwards. Rookies, especially as catchers, are not supposed to win pennants.

Most surprising of all is the Reds' pitching staff, which features six youngsters anchored by a couple of old-timers. Bob Purkey and Jim "A-Train" Brosnan have been through the mill, but Jay Hunt, O'Toole, Nunn, Maloney and now ex-Giants Sherman "Roadblock" Jones are still comparatively wet behind the ears.

Joey Jay is classed with the pups because he has never done well in his seven years, and the Milwaukee Braves gave up on him. Now he's one of the best.

Put it all together and what have you got? A "hot" pitching staff, and a good outfield. And three other factors.

FACTOR ONE is Manager Freddie Hutchinson, an ex-pitcher who hates to lose and

ON TO CHICAGO

San Francisco enjoys a day of rest today before plunging into a July 4th doubleheader at Chicago tomorrow.

Cal Amateur Golf Champ To Shoot For Nat'l Crown

PEBBLE BEACH (UPI)—John (Jocko) Richardson, an impassive shotmaker from Long Beach who admits he didn't learn to putt until after he had played golf for 20 years, today set his sights on the National Amateur Golf Championship.

Richardson, 40-year-old former hockey star at USC and later in professional ranks, yesterday won the California State Amateur Championship with a comeback, 2-1, triumphed over young Johnny Lotz of San Lorenzo.

"I've never qualified for a National Amateur before," he said after the win. "But now that I've learned to putt I'd really like to give it a try."

It was putting that turned the tide yesterday in the fog-shrouded 36-holes. Richardson rolled in birdie putts from 12, 20 and 18 feet to close the gap on the faltering, 20-year-old Lotz. Then he closed it out on the 35th hole after the San Jose State College athlete hit six traps on the last 10 holes.

Wright Capture Women's U.S. Open

SPRINGFIELD, N. J. (AP)—Mickey Wright, the tall, blonde Californian, won the Women's National Open Golf Tournament Saturday for the third time in four years.

Tiburon Win Streak Snapped By E. Bay '9'

Number Seven is unlucky in Tiburon today. The Tiburon Pelicans, unbeaten in their first six semi-pro baseball games this season, lost their seventh try yesterday when the E. Bay Bercovich and Sons team of the East Bay romped to an 8-3 triumph over the locals.

A four-run second inning on only one hit put the visitors in the lead for keeps and snapped the Pelicans' winning streak.

Wright Capture Women's U.S. Open

SPRINGFIELD, N. J. (AP)—Mickey Wright, the tall, blonde Californian, won the Women's National Open Golf Tournament Saturday for the third time in four years.

The long-driving San Diegan toured the 72 holes in 293 strokes good for $1,800, which boosted her earnings for the year to $11,248.72.

POX THREATENS CONGO SCHOOL...

milk is the lifesaver! When chicken pox or measles hit schools in America it's mildly serious. But in the Congo it's terrifying. The little girls at Mutato school were raised on a diet tragically lacking protein. Low resistance to the simplest diseases invited killers like meningitis and pneumonia. Protein supplement was needed fast . . . and milk was the answer. It came in time . . . in the form of powdered milk from America.

This lifesaver was sent by Americans supporting the Overseas Aid Program of their faith. While this case is Protestant—all three faiths—Protestant, Catholic and Jewish—maintain overseas programs that meet such emergencies, as well as provide basic food, clothing, shelter, jobs, education, tools and equipment to the millions in need.

Next time you are asked to support your faith's Overseas Aid Program, remember what milk did for the little girls at Mutato school!

Boreas Ocean Race Like Shell Game; Dember's Right Guess Brings Win

By ALFRED MATSON

When racing down the coast in either the Boreas or Santa Cruz race, you take your choice—inshore, a middle course or well out to sea. It is like the shell game. Pick the right one and you are in like Flynn. Otherwise, you've had it.

In Saturday's Boreas Race to Moss Landing, Paul Dember chose to head far off shore. He found wind out there and jogged right along to the finish line to win by an even two hours over the second boat, Rampant, owned by James Hayward.

The yachts that elected to play it close, hoping for an offshore breeze, picked the wrong shell and wound up among the also rans. In fact, six of the 17 starters threw in the towel and powered in.

The top three finishers: Sinbad, Dember, 17:10:00; Rampant, Hayward, 18:49:00; Azore, Jerry Malone, 19:36:51.

SEA HORSE GALLOPS

All in all the Midget Ocean Race to Half Moon Bay was an unqualified success. On the leg down the coast the winds were light but consistent and the Filly, Dick Lindsey's Sea Horse, was the winner with a time of 5:49:00. Bill Gray's Ruthie II was second and Evan Pugh got

Fire Laddies Breeze To Li'l League Title

Fire Department team climaxed its season with a 7-4 victory over second place Tavegia-Brusati Saturday to easily win the San Rafael American Little League by a six-game margin.

The Fire laddies wound up with 14 victories and 2 losses, compared to second place T and B's 8-8 mark. Other final records were Cerutti Brothers 7-9, Kiwanis 6-10 and Elks 5-11.

On the beat home yesterday, with a 9 o'clock start, the winds were almost non-existent at first but, once outside Half Moon Bay, they were most cooperative, permitting a pleasant reach all the way up to the Golden Gate.

Unofficially, Evan Pugh's Shandy was the winner on the homeward leg, the Filly second and Pete Schoonmaker's Electra in third position.

Drake Star Ard Named MVP In All-Star Game

Jerry Ard of San Anselmo, who starred at shortstop for the Drake High School Pirates in the recent Marin Athletic League season, displayed his talents on a larger scale Saturday.

The slick-gloved, sharp hitting infielder was voted the Most Valuable Player in the East-West All-Star High School game played at San Francisco's Candlestick Park.

Ard led the West to an 11-9 triumph as he hit a triple to deep right field and a single, sparked two rallies with two runs batted in and played flawlessly at short.

San Francisco's heralded pitching ace, Frank Bertaina of Sacred Heart High, was runner-up to Ard in the MVP voting.

A crowd of 3,000 saw the benefit game for a research fund.

Interesting Field In Transpac Race

By ALFRED MATSON

Complete list of yachts that will participate in the 22nd biennial Transpacific race from San Pedro to Honolulu starting tomorrow is an interesting one for the sailing buff as it contains all types from 320-foot square riggers down to 36-foot sloops.

There are two of the big windjammers. Both are training ships for the Japanese merchant marine and, although officially entered, they will not compete in the regular race but on a boat-for-boat contest for Nipponese supremacy. In any event, the two "tall ships" with all the kites flying will give a nostalgic touch to the starting line spectacle.

The 81-foot sloop Sirius (ex-Barlovento), owned by Howard Ahmanson, Newport Harbor Yacht Club, is the scratch boat and must give the other big "M" class boat, Pursuit, entered by Ron MacAnnan, San Francisco Y.C. 3 hours, 55 minutes, 12 seconds handicap.

In the entries as listed, the 36-foot sloop Peer Gynt, an Australian built yacht now owned by Gordon Morrison of San Francisco Y.C., has an insurmountable task to make a creditable showing with its high rating of 37.21. For instance, she must give the Nalu II, the winner in 1959, a 46-foot light displacement sloop, approximately 14 hours time allowance.

The 41 entries and their time allowances:

McKinley In Semi-Finals At Wimbledon

WIMBLEDON, England (AP)—Charles "Chuck" McKinley of St. Louis gained the semi-finals of the Wimbledon Tennis Championships today by beating Bobby Wilson of England 6-4, 6-4, 4-6, 6-4.

He was joined by Red Laver of Australia, Ramanathan Krishnan of India and Mike Sangster of England.

McKinley's victory over the top British star, who Saturday eliminated defending champion Neale Fraser of Australia, raised America's hopes of winning the title for the first time since 1955.

In the semi-finals, the stocky St. Louis youngster will play Sangster, who crushed Ivo Pimental of Venezuela 6-2, 6-2, 6-4. Laver will face Krishnan, who upset the Australian champion and No. 4 seed, Roy Emerson 6-1, 6-4, 6-4.

Machen Gets Another Try At Johnson

ATLANTIC CITY, N.J. (AP)—

Harold Johnson, the NBA light heavyweight champion, was singing the blues today despite his victory over Eddie Machen, the second ranking heavyweight contender.

The narrow 10-round decision over the Portland, Ore., high-ranker was Johnson's 15th straight triumph and yet he was moaning low. Not even the $10,000 purse, one of the best of his 14-year career, could perk him up.

Why the gloom?

Archie Moore, the co-holder of the 175-pound crown, heavyweight champion Floyd Patterson and Sonny Liston, the No. 1 heavy contender won't fight him, claimed Johnson and co-manager Pat Oliveri.

So where does that leave Johnson, now that he's conquered the No. 2 heavy? Most likely with a return fight with Machen, per their contract, in Philadelphia or San Francisco in about two months. Their return was to be held within 40 days but a cut over Johnson's right eye—suffered in the fifth round—required four stitches and he won't be ready that early.

Johnson gained the verdict from referee Paul Cavalier, the sole official, by outscoring Machen in a duel of left jabs.

British Troops Guard Kuwait From Invasion

KUWAIT (AP) — More than 2,000 British troops stood guard in Kuwait today, ready to counter any move by Iraq against the little sheikdom. The last of the commandos and paratroopers arrived last night, completing a two-day landing operation that sparked cries of protest from the controlled press of the Soviet Union and the United Arab Republic.

A force of Saudi Arabian troops also arrived to bolster Kuwait's defense, local military sources said. Its size was not disclosed.

The government dispatched a three-man mission to the United Nations security council in New York to argue Sheikh Abdullah As-Salim As-Sabah's charge that Iraq's claim to Kuwait threatens the independence of the little territory, under which lies the world's largest proven oil reserve.

Britain told the Security Council her forces would go into action if Iraqi troops crossed Kuwait's frontier. Iraq denied any intent to use force to back up her claim to the sheikdom and urged the council to demand "unconditional and immediate withdrawal" of the British forces.

Britain's Sir Patrick Dean told the council the British force, landed at the request of Sheikh Abdullah, would be pulled out as soon as the Kuwait ruler "considers the threat to the independence of his country is over." The council adjourned until Wednesday, subject to recall in the event of a "new emergency."

The British force, strengthened by tanks and artillery, dug into a defensive ring in the sun-parched desert north of Kuwait city.

Marine commandos pegged out nets to camouflage their trucks and give them some protection from the 115-degree heat and frequent sandstorms.

The Kuwait-Iraq border was re-opened Sunday to road traffic from Iraq, but police were still stopping all border-bound traffic from the Kuwait side. The government imposed censorship on all international cables and phone calls including news dispatches.

Pert Pink And Red In Child's Room

A ROOM that can "take it" whether your daughter has it neat for company viewing or is busy with paints and crayons entertaining a school friend with color books. The unfinished furniture was painted red and pink for the chests to contrast with the two green chairs, whose pads match the curtain material. All the fabrics are machine washable.

Practicality Looms Large In Decorating

Decorating a child's room can be more satisfactory if you bear in mind that the child is small in size and that the furnishings too should be scaled to size.

Remember that even pictures hung at the height normal for an adult may seem distorted to a child. Cork boards and toy shelves should not be above the head.

This room has taken on a pert look done in tints of red and pink for a young girl. It's practicality is proved in the cleaning, too, with washable spread, rug and curtains and the floor of vinyl.

The spread, called "Check-mate," is of washable cotton, used here in its pink tone. It also comes in blue, moss, aqua and sand shades in single or double sizes.

The furniture was purchased unfinished and painted to harmonize with the other furnishings. The white rug is washable.

Window shades such as these come with fancy bottom borders to blend with the decor also.

Wash Summer Clothes

Wash summer clothes soon after wearing. Perspiration weakens fibers.

What Has Happened To Fourth Of July?

By GAY PAULEY
UPI WOMEN'S EDITOR

What in the world has happened to the Fourth of July?

Once it stood for honor to our country, for family homecomings, for home-made ice cream. Today, it stands for homicide on the highways.

When I was a girl, we celebrated the Fourth by counting how many ears of hot, buttered corn from the first garden harvest we could put away. Now, we tabulate the traffic fatalities.

The Fourth used to mean lazy hours to loll in a hammock while the dense leaves of the Oak or Maple shaded its occupant from the afternoon sun. Maybe it meant reading a little, or just looking upward at the bits of blue and fleecy white visible through the leaves when a breeze stirred them.

It meant the thoughts of youth while the sounds of summer were all around us — the hum of the bees as they searched for nectar, the call of a bird to its mate, and the half-hearted swat at the fly who dared to interrupt the reading or the contemplation.

Now, we have substituted the safety belt in the car for the security of the hammock, and even so, the traffic toll sets records almost every long holiday weekend.

NEW PREACHMENTS

We used to hear the preachments about a "safe and sane fourth," and the lecturers mostly were talking about how to handle firecrackers . . . Not about 300 horsepower under the hood and the "couple for the road" warning the driver.

The fourth used to mean watermelon chilled in the waters of the deep spring until a bite into its sweet, pink juiciness set off chills. It used to mean banana or peach or vanilla ice cream chilled in a hand-crank freezer and unmatched anywhere in its flavor . . . and each of the children bargaining for first licks from the dipper when the cream had had time to "set."

Maybe the fourth meant a family gathering with each cook in the family contributing her specialty to the groaning board. Or, a picnic on the nearby church grounds or shaded woodland with cold fried chicken and fresh apple pie and a big bowl of new potato salad and all the iced lemonade you could drink.

We still eat outdoors. But now, we have barbecues with charcoal-broiled steak charred on the outside, the ubiquitous mixed green salad collecting bugs, and all the five-to-one iced martinis we can drink.

WANT FLAG-WAVING

I for one long for an old-fashioned fourth once more, when part of the celebration of our national independence meant a parade and a lot of flag-waving. To be sure, some of the speeches seemed terribly long for us children before it was time to go home and start the ice cream freezer. But almost every town, every village had its voice to remind us of our heritage, of what we owe those gentlemen who put their names to a famous document in 1776.

I remember when every family in our town draped the stars and stripes from a flagpole in the yard or from a front porch banister on the fourth.

Today, in a nation which works terribly hard at its leisure, who would give up the long weekend on the road, on the golf course, at the ball game, or on the waterways, to listen to a patriotic speech or watch a parade?

I wonder how many families even own a flag to fly on Independence Day.

Extra Darts Can Be Added To Make Overblouse Fitted

By EUNICE FARMER

"I like fitted overblouses, yet most of the patterns are cut very straight and boxy. Should I fit them in at the side seams to make them more fitted?"

Mrs. J.W.E.

Dear Mrs. J.W.E.:

Yes, overblouses can be fitted in to suit the individual figure. You can add darts, but they must be directly in line with your bust-line. Perhaps you will find that a dart at the underarm as well as one below the bust will give you the fitting you desire.

You may have a slight curve at the side seam, however, I wouldn't add too much shape here, it is better to shape a garment with darts. You will enjoy sewing so much more when you do not become a slave to any pattern, but consider it a basic shell, and change it until it is most becoming to you.

"Can you please tell me if there is any way or method to set permanent pleats in fabrics such as voiles, jerseys, percales, etc.?" Mrs. I.E.A.

Dear Mrs. I.E.A.:

"Permanent" pleats is a term that has been used rather loosely, and everyone expects too much of it. Pleats that stay in after washing, are made with special pleating equipment and done commercially. Even these usually have to be pressed over with a steam iron to make them look sharp. They usually are only successful in washable fabrics that have a synthetic content in them. This synthetic content, such as nylon, dacron, arnel, etc., that makes a fabric crease resistant, also helps hold the pleats in. The fabrics you mentioned will not stay permanently pleated even if they are pressed commercially.

"My little girl is only 11 years old, but is so interested in learning to sew. Do you think this is too young? She has been making doll clothes for more than a year."

Mrs. T.R.

Dear Mrs. T.R.:

Sometimes a child is pushed into learning to sew just because her mother thinks she should have something to do. This is a mistake and the child might never have a desire to learn because of this first experience.

Soiled, Scratched Furniture Improved With 'Doctoring'

By JOYCE SCHULLER

CHICAGO (UPI) — If sunlight points up damaged and soiled furniture, some home "doctoring" may be in order.

Here are some tips on how to touch up soiled upholstery and nicked wood, taken from a handbook of furniture facts.

To improve the feel of sticky leather, wash the surface twice with gasoline and allow to dry. Next, mix an ounce each of lacquer and lacquer thinner and spray a coat on the leather or brush on with a camel's hair brush, being careful not to repeat strokes.

Shampoo the soiled upholstery with a good neutral soap solution, made by dissolving soap in boiling water, adding cold water and stirring until a thick dry suds is obtained. Scrub a small section of the upholstery at a time, using a stiff bristle brush and a quantity of suds and working with a circular motion. Scrape off suds and rinse with weak salt water solution, applied with a soft rag. Wipe long pile fabric in the direction of the nap.

RESTORE SHINE

Restore varnished surfaces turned white from water or hot dishes by rubbing lightly with a piece of flannel dampened in spirits of camphor or essence of peppermint. After a few moments, apply a good wax furniture polish, but postpone rubbing until dry.

Remove white spots from wax finishes by sponging with turpentine and applying fresh wax as soon as the turpentine fumes have evaporated.

Small dents in wood furniture are best removed by applying warm water, then folding a piece of brown kraft paper five or six times, soaking the paper in warm water and laying it on the dent. Apply a warm iron to the paper until dry. If the dent is not gone, repeat the process. If the surface is unbroken, the dent should disappear. Be sure to repolish the area.

Shallow scratches on dark-finished furniture often can be hidden by touching up with iodine or stick scratch removers, available in paint and hardware stores. To repair deep scratches, remove all loose splinters, and brush on a stain that's slightly lighter than the color of the furniture, using a fine brush.

Child Who Suffers Night-Time Terrors Probably Very Sensitive

(Q) "Our first two children are sound sleepers. Our third child frequently wakes up screaming. It takes several minutes to quiet her down. She receives the same care the other children get. She is well and strong. Why should she have night terrors when they don't?" Z. F.

(A) There are great differences between children in the same family. Probably your third child is very sensitive. She reacts to things more vividly than the older ones. Probably she is more afraid than they are. Try not to let her watch movies or TV programs. Give her as quiet and placid a life as possible. Be sure to talk with your doctor about her.

(Q) "My son is attending his first summer camp. He is 9. He did not want to go, but I persuaded him to try. He is miserable. He can't eat the food. He doesn't sleep nights. This morning he phoned and asked me to come and get him. The camp leader called immediately afterward and told me to make him stick it out. What shall I do?" G. K.

(A) Go get him. It would only make matters worse if you force him to stay. Help him learn the skills that boys of his age admire. Give him the security of self-confidence. Build him up. Perhaps he'll be ready for camp next year.

(Q) "My daughter is in junior high. She is the tallest girl in her home room. Her boy friend is inches shorter. She feels inferior because of her height. I had the same problem at her age. What can I do to help her?" T. M.

(A) Get clothes which do not exaggerate her height. Help her enjoy activities in which her stature will be an advantage — basketball, for example. Keep reminding her that other kids aren't as bothered by her height as she is. They're worried about their own problems, not hers. Tell her of your own experience, and remind her that eventually the others will catch up.

'Dear Nikita—It's A Happy Dog's Life At White House'

Editor's Note — Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev recently presented the six-month-old offspring of space dog Strelka to Mrs. Jacqueline Kennedy as a gift. Here is a letter that the dog, Pushinka, might write to her former communist boss if she could write.

By HELEN THOMAS
WASHINGTON (UPI) — Dear Nikita:

Thought you might like to hear how I am making out at the White House.

Frankly speaking, it's a happy dog's life. Some people say no Russian ever had it so good. But then they're prejudiced.

The day I arrived at the White House was "the most" (that's a new expression I picked up in the free world). The American press and the ruling circles made a lot over me. The cameramen had a field day.

Now I know what my mother meant about being "in the public eye." It was a bit of a handicap being the pup of a famous dog, but now I'm in orbit.

The President's daughter, Caroline, (she's three) always plays with me on the green lawn behind the big house near her swing. They only had to tell her my Russian name twice and she started calling me "Pushinka." I'm glad they didn't start calling me "Fluff," my American name.

Of course, I get along best with Caroline's Welsh terrier "Charlie." We see eye to eye—even if he is a capitalistic dog.

With Charlie and me, it's "peaceful coexistence." We're roommates. We each sleep in our own basket in the bouquet room of the garden. It's peaceful and well guarded.

The White House spread isn't bad either. We get two light meals a day. Of course it isn't stroganoff but you can't have everything.

It's canned horsemeat which I understand you recommended recently as good eating. We also get biscuits as a "treat."

Allow Children To Finger Paint On Own Panel

Most children love to finger paint, but this can lead to trouble when they decide to paint a "mural" on the walls.

A practical solution to the problem is to attach a piece of plastic-surfaced paneling to the bedroom door. Choose a light-colored panel so that the finger paints will be easy to see.

The paneling's smooth pastie surface is easy to work on, and safe, too. The day's "masterpiece" can be wiped off with a damp cloth, and the panel is ready for the next day.

When the children start school and outgrow the finger painting stage, the panel can be used as a message center and study board. Use a soft crayon or grease pencil to write. Erase with a damp cloth.

If the plastic-surfaced hardboard is to be put up over a panel door, first fill in the depressions with insulation board, use wallboard adhesive or contact cement to secure the panel to the back of the door. Sand the paneling's edges or apply moldings so that the combination drawing board-message center has a smooth-surfaced perimeter.

Rustproof

Pack a box of baking soda with the fishing gear. The compound is a rust detergent. Fish hooks stuck in a cork in a box or jar of dry soda won't rust.

The Kennedys took me along with them to their dacha at Middleburg, Va., last weekend and I romped around with the horsy set. I steered clear of the hounds.

The family is going up to their dacha on Cape Cod over the Fourth of July (what's that?) but they plan to leave me at the White House until they can fix up a pen for me at Hyannis Port. The First Lady doesn't want me "to get lost."

I still have my brown leather collar on. It reminds me of my doghouse in Moscow.

As Ever, Pushinka

P.S. I've been doing a lot of thinking about what you said and to tell you the truth, I'm not sure I want my pups to grow up under socialism. You understand. P.

Use Color To Brighten Old Ceiling

Ceilings are becoming much more colorful if the decor in new homes is an accurate barometer.

Formerly ceilings were painted white or cream, but today many builders and contractors are installing colorful ceiling blocks which create a warm and personable appearance.

The 10-inch square blocks, which have a permanent baked melamine plastic surface that resembles that on a refrigerator, come in 11 "companion" colors.

Colors can be chosen to blend or contrast with the walls. Blocks in two harmonizing colors can be alternated on a recreation room or powder room ceiling to create an unusual "checkerboard" effect.

Tedious cleaning jobs are eliminated with this paneling because it can be damp-wiped in minutes. Dirt does not penetrate the plastic surface, which resists heat and moisture. Blocks never need painting.

Plastic-surfaced hardboard blocks can be used in new houses over solid backing or to cover unsightly ceilings in older houses. Simple metal clips and wallboard adhesive are used to secure the blocks.

A tongue-and-groove joint assures a snug fit and conceals all fastening in the finished installation. The blocks can be installed with ordinary carpenter tools—hammer, saw and level.

ALMANAC

Today is Monday, July 3, the 184th day of the year with 181 more to follow in 1961.

The moon is approaching its last quarter.

The morning stars are Venus, Jupiter and Saturn.

The evening stars are Mars, Jupiter and Saturn.

On this day in history:

In 1775, George Washington assumed command of the Continental Army at Cambridge, Mass.

In 1863, the turning point of the Civil war, the Battle of Gettysburg, was fought. After this battle, the fortunes of the Confederacy began to decline.

In 1890, Idaho became the 43rd state to enter the Union.

In 1898, the U.S. Navy defeated the Spanish Fleet at Santiago, Cuba, in the Spanish-American War.

In 1950, United States soldiers met North Koreans in battle.

A thought for today: Poet John Keats wrote: "If poetry comes not as naturally as leaves to a tree, it had better not come at all."

Baseball Tournament Is Good Promotion For Marin

The county's chambers of commerce and the Marin Industrial Development Foundation don't often find much to cheer about on the sports pages of the Independent-Journal. But they had better be reading them for the next few weeks.

Going on in San Rafael right now is the 25th annual state baseball tournament conducted by the National Baseball Congress.

Now this may not sound like much to those more used to reading the financial pages than the sports pages. But this tournament attracts more than 20 semi-professional baseball teams to Marin.

Just simple mathematics will indicate that this means bringing 400 or more players and managers to Marin from all over California. Some, as they continue to win, will stay on or return. Add to these, however, their friends and supporters who travel to see their team play, and pretty soon you get a sizeable group of hungry, thirsty, tired, gas-consuming travelers.

It's good business to bring that many people into the county. Many of them will love it as we do and tell their friends about it. All of them will bring in fresh new cash to spend with our merchants.

But the benefits don't end here. Unlike many conventions which could attract a like number of visitors, the baseball tournament is news, news that will particularly be played big on the sports pages in the home towns of the teams. It also will be recorded in newspapers of towns having semi-pro teams which did not win a berth in the state tournament.

That's a lot of news stories carrying San Rafael datelines going into the press of California, and in an area where not many Marin datelines appear — the sports page.

So it is easy to see that the chambers of commerce and the Marin Industrial Development Foundation might well look closely at the tournament and what it means to Marin.

This is the second year it has been held here. Perhaps our official county advocates could do something to make the tournament even more enjoyable for both the participants and the sponsors. Then maybe they'd bring it here every year and youths throughout the state would be working hard to "make the tournament in Marin."

Friendlier Varments For Fall?

Are raccoons and skunks going to move in with Marin's human creatures in an unwelcome outburst of chummy togetherness this fall? It happened four years ago. And our VIA (Varment Intelligence Agency) suggests we prepare the extra bedroom for them this autumn.

The reasoning behind this warning is based upon a fairly predictable decline in the number of field mice due to Marin's dry winter. By autumn these little beasts will have stripped the meadows and hills of food and, hungry and thirsty, the remainder will pack their bags and move to a residential neighborhood.

The skunks and raccoons, regarding mice as better than beefsteak, are right behind. Some of the bolder varments take up residence in basements and make a soft living from their host's garbage cans.

Those who don't like skunks and raccoons are advised to bolt their doors and put out "no vacancy" signs early this year.

HAL BOYLE'S COLUMN

So You Think You're Troubled —What About A Seasick Fish?

NEW YORK (P)—Things a columnist might never know if he didn't open his mail: Pity the poor fish in a long and violent storm. They get seasick, just as people do. But they have no pills to cure them—or make them feel better.

Some seeds have a built-in immortality. For example, the seeds of the lotus lily have germinated and grown after being buried a thousand years.

Would it work here? A bus line in Tokyo operates on the "honor system." Passengers drop their own fares in a collection box, and are free to help themselves to change, if necessary.

But you didn't know that: The five Great Lakes contain about half of the earth's supply of fresh water. A dragonfly has more than 30,000 eyes. And people with dark brown eyes suffer most in the dentist's chair.

The "Voice of America" is one of the few government agencies that works a 24-hour day. It broadcasts around the clock seven days a week.

Things do change. Your grandfather probably never let a summer day go by without swatting a fly. But how long has it been since you swatted a fly? I can't remember.

Our quotable notables: "Honest statesmanship," said Abraham Lincoln, "is the wise employment of individual meanness for the public good."

The president wedded at the youngest age was Andrew Johnson. He married Eliza McCord when he was only 18 years and 127 days old. Of five U. S. presidents who re-married, Theodore Roosevelt did so at the earliest age. He was 28 years and 36 days old when Edith Kermit Carow became his second wife.

Safety note: Throughout the year, nine persons are killed every two hours in highway accidents. But on holidays—such as the 4th of July—10 die every two hours.

One of the pleasant things about living longer today is that you have plenty of company. America now has nearly a million persons 85 or older. Life expectancy since 1920 has leaped from 54.1 to 69.7 years.

Why the farmer complains: In 1960 he got only 39 cents of the dollar the average consumer spent on food.

Civilized man has emerged from the forest but is still dependent on it. He makes some 5,000 products from wood, and the average American each year uses 438 pounds of paper and 224 board feet of lumber.

WISCRACK of the week: Walter Slezak believes U. S. wives need some new recipes. He says most of those they have now begin with the word "defrost."

Canadians are the world's talkingest people. Over the telephone they average 530 calls a year, compared to 508 for the residents of Iceland and 496 for Americans.

PROMOTION came slowly to Robert E. Lee, one of our greatest military geniuses. He held the rank of captain for 21 years.

Even a light rain is pretty heavy. A one-inch rainfall deposits 113 tons of water per acre.

It was Thomas A. Edison who observed, "Everything comes to him who hustles while he waits."

10 YEARS AGO

Sausalito police were instructed to raise the speed limit to 35 miles an hour on Bridgeway between Napa and Nevada Streets, as the chamber of commerce advised that police crackdown with a 25-mile limit was hurting the business district.

Fairfax's city council took steps to acquire an "inner highway" to San Anselmo, instructing City Atty. Wallace Meyers to file condemnation proceedings to acquire several land parcels at the south end of Broadway.

Berlin Situation Dangerous But Not So Dramatic As Some Suppose

SINCE VIENNA there have been many statements about Berlin from both sides of the iron curtain.

Each side has said what is the vital interest which it will fight for rather than surrender. The West has made it unmistakably clear that it will fight for, rather than surrender, the freedom of West Berlin and freedom of access to West Berlin. The Soviet government has made it very clear that it will sign a peace treaty with East Germany and it argues from it all the legal consequences.

Thus far, both sides have been both firm and cautious, vehement that they will not surrender their vital interests and careful not to close the doors to negotiations.

THE BASIC American position has always been that the problem of Berlin can be solved definitively only if the West Germans are reunited and the whole of Berlin becomes the capital of Germany.

But, unhappily, there is no visible chance of reuniting the two Germans. They have been divided for 15 years, and in that time almost all of Europe on both sides of the iron curtain has acquired vested interests which oppose the re-unification of Germany. There are, of course, the Soviet Union and all its satellites, especially Poland and Czechoslovakia, which would regard one Germany of 80,000,000 people, armed by and allied with the United States, as a mortal danger. But they are not alone. The truth is that France and Britain are decided as a matter of undeclared national policy to prevent the unification of the two Germans.

The flourishing idea of "European unity" has as one of its cardinal purposes the cementing of West Germany into Western Europe. This is the setting in which the problem of West Berlin is posed today. There are some who say that there would be no problem if Khrushchev had not deliberately and unnecessarily created one. I am afraid they have not fully understood the problem. For while the Communists do not like the status quo in Berlin—showplace, propaganda, espionage and escape hatch—the West also has a good deal to worry about. I shall cite as a witness the German Ambassador to Washington, Dr. Wilhelm Grewe, quoting from his official commentary on the Geneva conference of 1959.

AFTER ARGUING that no negotiated compromise is possible, Dr. Grewe says, "At most, the only conceivable thing would be a silent agreement which would let the other partner know the situation is accepted as irrevocable in Berlin, on the one hand (by continued presence of Western troops), and in the Soviet Zone, on the other (by continued existence of the Ulbricht regime)." This is the preservation of the status quo, which so many tell us should be our objective.

But what does the German Ambassador say about this objective? "If the West would acquiesce, then this too would not be a true compromise, but rather the beginning of a capitulation. West Berlin cannot, in the long run, be held if its population must come to the conclusion that the West has in fact accepted the division of Germany."

That last cuts to the heart of the issue. West Berlin, says the German Ambassador, cannot in the long run be held if the people come to believe that the West has accepted the division of Germany. Why not? Presumably because many of the Berliners will move to the West and others will make their way to the East. It is this recognition of the division of Germany that Khrushchev has as his primary object. The Ambassador may be right, and if all we can do is to stand firm and stand fast, almost surely the Ambassador's pessimism will prove to have been right.

BUT THERE IS no compelling reason why we should accept so desperate a conclusion. For if the German Ambassador is right, we are risking a thermonuclear war to preserve a situation in which "West Berlin cannot in the long run be held."

It would be a wiser policy, it seems to me, to recognize the fact that for the indefinite future the two Germans will not reunite, and to insist as a matter of positive Western policy, not as a shamefaced concession to the Soviets, on our new guarantees to meet this new situation, guarantees under which West Berlin can live confidently and in freedom until the day, now so remote, when it will again be the capital of Germany.

Inverness Old Timer Recalls Earliest Days At Tomales Bay

THE OTHER DAY in Inverness we met an old man with sparrows at his feet.

"I feed them Zoom," he said. "The same breakfast food that I eat." Zoom is an instant whole wheat cereal.

Brock Schreiber, 87, lives in a house in the first valley of Inverness, built in 1896. First came to the town as a summer visitor in 1887 and camped in the second valley "Only two houses here then, believed to have belonged to digger Indians. His father was in furniture and carpets and Schreiber likewise.

Schreiber walks usually three times a day to his pier and boat house on Tomales Bay where the air is made of salt. "I used to build boats," he said, "and used to row across Tomales Bay for passengers. We used to put out crab nets, get crabs and cook them on the beach," he added.

Gray hair protruding from a baseball cap, wearing a plaid shirt, Schreiber sat on a bench on his porch over boxes of neatly sawed wood. "I saw them myself with an electric saw," he said, "for use in the stove and fireplace."

"The world would be better," the kind man said, "with more childhood dreams." In his hand he held a silver-headed cane which belonged to his grandfather. On it is inscribed "To Grandfather Schreiber from Jacob, John and Christina." At his feet were the sparrows.

TO BE HIGHLY commended are 41 Marin City teenagers whom we had the good happenstance to interview the other day. The youngsters are aides to the summer recreation program and will start teaching other youths sports, music, dancing, arts and crafts Wednesday.

Full of spirit and fun, yet serious, the 41 include the three Fosters—Art ("I keep order by keeping the kids busy"), Ron ("I teach clarinet"), and Royce ("I teach dancing"). The kids in the program have something to show their parents after summer is over rather than just having goofed off.

Gloria Woodkins, assistant to the director, says she has been taught how to handle "shy guys" as well as the aggressive children. James Spears, who does many things says, "I handle ends and odds."

SAUSALITO SHOULD be a city of romance, says Neil Davis, proprietor of the bar with no name.

Davis says it can afford to be neither a San Rafael, with its "canals of box-like and tasteless piles of apartments" nor a Miami Beach. He says the Village Fair, with its many charming shops, should not look like a broken-windowed, abandoned cement factory from across the street.

He quotes Wilfred Owen as saying we, instead of planning motor cars to fit our lives, plan our lives to fit our cars. This is exactly what Sausalito is being asked to do to the heart of its downtown, Davis adds.

He recommends park over parking, acquiring the ferry boat Berkeley as a city hall, filling the ferry slip to put it on solid ground, and putting in a civic hall and art gallery rather than a library.

RED CROSS SWIMMING classes are on tap again at Tamalpais High School and so is Mrs. I. A. Stewart, registrar and woman-of-the-pool.

She is known to every child as that firm but friendly gal who drones in her penetrating, nasalized voice such utterings as these:

"Please keep your children behind the rope. The well is 12 feet deep." And, "These people (the swim aides) are all life guards but they are bizz-ee." and "Please walk—don't run. We can-not scoop you up."

TRY AND STOP ME

BENNETT CERF

Long before Van Cliburn became famous, another pianist, Louis Gottschalk, caught the public fancy. P. T. Barnum, in fact, offered him $20,000 and expenses for a series of concerts—and said he'd double the price if Gottschalk could train a seal to accompany him!

Gottschalk once fooled the Boston critics by playing something by Beethoven when the program called for a composition of his own. No one noticed it!

The villagers in a remote southern community got their best laugh in ten years when a damyankee erected a tool shed and hired a night watchman to guard the tools and supplies therein. "As though," they jeered, "any sane man in these hills would steal anything to work with!"

West opened the queen of diamonds and continued with the jack. South ruffed the second diamond, cashed the ace of clubs and crossruffed clubs and diamonds for a few tricks.

When declarer led the king of diamonds from the dummy, eventually, East naturally covered the ace. South discarded a heart instead of ruffing.

West likewise discarded a heart, and this cost him his last chance to defeat the contract.

Officer Pins
Down Youth

A San Rafael policeman was forced to pin down and handcuff a 16-year-old youth following a disturbance at a drive-in snack bar Friday night.

Patrolman Wade R. Powell saw two boys fighting at Foster's Freeze Drive In at 1903 Fourth Street about 11:20 p.m.

When Powell grabbed one lad "he acted as if he were going to fight me," the officer said later.

Both youths, residents of San Rafael, were questioned at the police station. The handcuffed 16-year-old said he had been drinking. He was booked for disturbing the peace and sent to juvenile hall. The other lad, 17, was released in his father's custody.

Fire Protection
Meet Called Off

The Tiburon Fire Protection District will not meet on its regular meeting tonight because of the Fourth of July weekend, according to secretary Kelly J. Wheeler.

The commission will next meet on Wednesday, July 12, at the Tiburon Boulevard main fire station, Wheeler said.

THE WOBBLY WAPITI

A big cow elk stands ready to protect her newborn calf at Como Park Zoo in St. Paul, Minn. The youngster, born only a few hours earlier, was trying out his shaky legs while facing the camera for the first time Wednesday. Elk are also known by the Indian name, wapiti. (AP Wirephoto)

Will Lion's Roar Wake You Up?
Yes, But Only If You Want It To

NEW YORK (UPI)—Science has come to some definite conclusions about what you hear while you're asleep without being bothered enough to wake up. These are:

If you're deeply asleep the chances are overwhelming you won't hear anything, no matter what it is.

If you don't hear the telephone ringing, you wouldn't have heard a lion roaring — if one had gotten into your bedroom.

When you sleep through the wailing of a siren or the beating roar of a rain storm, you would have slept just as soundly if bagpipes had been skewing or artillery booming.

But there is an exception. If you really want to hear a particular sound and to be awakened by it, there is a high probability you will.

This question of what you hear while you're asleep without knowing it since you're not awakened, has been kicking around in science for a long time.

Scientists William W. K. Zung and W. P. Wilson of the University of Texas at Galveston went to a lot of trouble to answer it. First, they hired 25 medical students to serve as their guinea pigs.

One by one these 25 slept through a night in an air-conditioned and sound-proofed room with six electrodes attached to their heads. These transmitted their brain wave patterns to a recording apparatus.

The characteristic brain wave patterns of four stages of sleep, from the lightest to the heaviest, are known. Any change from a heavy sleep pattern to a lighter one, was taken to mean the sleeping man had heard whatever noise had been set off in the room.

These noises were many. They were set off through a loud-speaker connected with a tape recorder. All were played at the same volume. The noises were divided into two categories — familiar and unfamiliar.

The familiar ones were door chimes sounding, a telephone ringing, cars stopping and starting, clocks striking and planes taking off.

Presumably unfamiliar to the sleepers were artillery booming, Chinese gongs reverberating, a monkey howling, a lion roaring, a baby crying, bagpipes shrilling.

Changes in brain wave patterns were analyzed statistically and the results showed you are as likely to sleep through a familiar sound as an unfamiliar one even though you hear it. Whether you hear it or don't hear it depends on the depth of your sleep.

This finding has to be contrasted with the established scientific fact that the human brain can tell the differences among a number of sounds even when asleep. On the basis of that fact, you'd think something unfamiliar like a lion roaring would awaken the sleeper when heard.

The scientists couldn't go into that. But they confirmed the ability of the sleeping human brain to discriminate among noises. Fifteen subjects were promised bonus pay if they woke up when they heard either a phone ringing or bagpipes. They earned the bonus. They were "motivated," as mothers are who awaken with the first wail of a crying baby.

Mahogany-Trimmed Aquariums
Are Latest Thing For Fish

An exclusive product being sold by the Gay Pet Shop, 508 Fourth Street, San Rafael is a mahogany-trimmed aquarium which proprietors Arthur and Dorothy Newman are marketing for the inventor Frank Stout of Daly City.

Stout started producing them as a hobby, and the Newmans, being in the business, were the first to see the sales possibilities. So far, Gay Pet Shop is the only outlet.

Object of using mahogany trim instead of metal is to eliminate metallic deposits in the water which can be toxic to the occupants. It is particularly suitable for salt water tanks where oxidation is more pronounced.

For a fascinating display of them in use you can find them at Sabella's new restaurant where they have been installed between the walls, with the tropical fish visible from both sides.

They are also available for home use from five to 20-gallon sizes and to order. The Newmans claim they'll last indefinitely with normal handling.

RICHARD R. ZAHM, young architect for the Schultz Building Co. of Greenbrae, has won the merit award, equivalent to second prize, presented in the "Homes for Better Living" category in a recent national competition held by the American Institute of Architects.

The honor was awarded to Zahm for his design of home and landscaping in the $30,000 classification created for E. A. Thorpe, executive vice president of the Dried Fruit Association of California.

KIMBALL MANUFACTURING CORP. in San Rafael has announced that Robert F. Davis, professor of marketing and director of the executive development program at Stanford University School of Business has been elected to the board of directors of the fiberglass firm.

PAUL PICKART who is remodeling the old Railway Express Agency offices on Tamalpais Avenue, San Rafael into a retail liquor store, has sold his chain of launderettes in Mill Valley, Novato, San Anselmo, Vallejo and Fairfield—all known as Spee-Dee-Wash—to William F. Breeze, 28 Country Club Drive, Mill Valley. The transaction was handled by Harry Abras, of Redmond Realty.

This gives Breeze a total of seven units — he already has two in San Francisco.

ELECTRIC SHAVERS for the convenience of customers are now installed in vehicles of Ted's Taxi Service in Tiburon.

The service also has new rates on air freight to the San Francisco International Airport on the 11 p.m. run from the Edgewater in Corte Madera to meet 1 a.m. planes headed east.

AND SPEAKING of rates, Everett M. Ruelle, manager of United Moving and Storage, Larkspur, points out that it's cheaper to move from Marin County to Reno than it is to Truckee which is not only about 34 miles closer but on the same highway route.

Taking an average-size household of say 5,000 pounds as an example, the difference is from $5 to $10 depending on the exact Marin point of origin. Double the load and the difference is $50 to $60.

Another seeming inconsistency is from Marin County to Phoenix, Ariz., and from Marin to San Diego, a much shorter distance—but your bill will be $12.50 higher.

It's caused by two different tariffs—one interstate and the other intrastate.

All electronic television was invented in a loft in San Francisco in 1927 by Philip T. Farnsworth.

Why you
SAVE 15% ON PHONE CALLS to other communities in
THE BAY AREA

This is a metropolitan calling area larger than the state of Rhode Island.

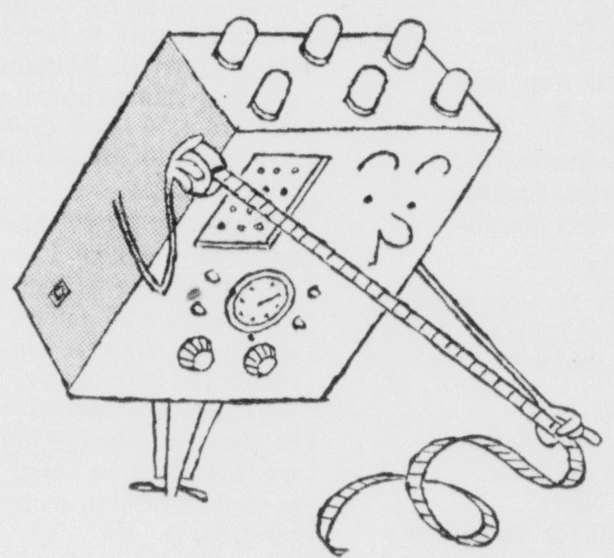

Over the years, cities and towns in the Bay Area have grown into a giant community.

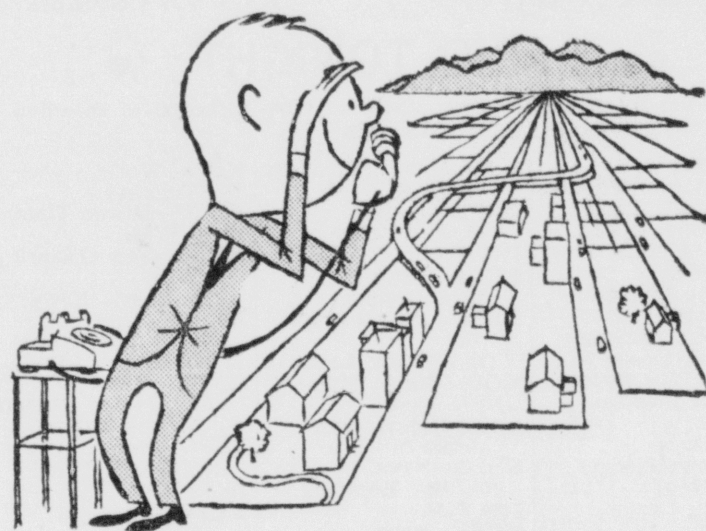

But today you can call within this area for less than long distance rates.

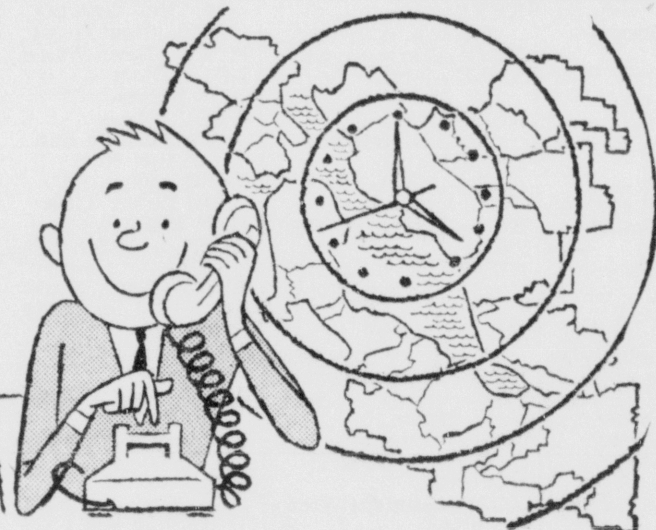

A message-unit call costs 15% less than Long Distance for the same time and distance.

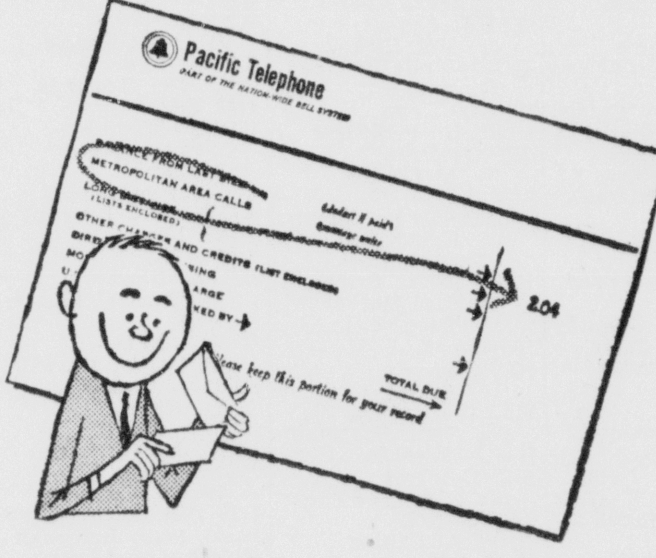

The reason is that high-speed electronic equipment records these message units...

And you're dialing more and more places in this expanding Metropolitan Area.

These calls are measured in message units, which show how far you call and how long you talk.

... and we combine them on your bill instead of itemizing each call.

This costs less for bookkeeping than it would to itemize each call separately.

So you pay less for message-unit calls dialed anywhere within one of the broadest communities in the U.S.

If you need your Metropolitan Area calls itemized because you want a breakdown of costs for business purposes or any other reason—then place them with the Operator. Tell her to put them through as station-to-station calls. The charges will appear separately on your bill, without the 15% saving.
